

Garden Club Members Will Sponsor Bazaar

Members of the Osage garden club, branch of the Woman's Farm and Garden association, are busy working on several committees making ready for their bazaar that will be at the Birmingham Community house on Dec. 7.

Mrs. Fred J. Stefanki of Rouge Circle hosted her "Christmas decorations" committee Oct. 22. Coffee and dessert were served after the work session to Mrs. F. H. Hamby, Virginia Hamby, Mrs. Ray Roberts, Mrs. Murray Osborn, Mrs. William Armstrong and Mrs. A. Zimmerman.

The Pine Hill drive home of Mrs. Louis Deak, Jr., will be a "bee hive" of activity tomorrow afternoon as her committee will be working on their project of powder puffs and rhinestone covered pill boxes. Sandwiches and coffee will be served to the workers. Mrs. Thomas Laflue, Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. Harry P. Pinson and Mrs. William Dewey.

The Donald Smiths of Oakhill drive entertained at dinner recently. The guests were board members of the Tomahawk club. The club dates back 50 years when the original six couples, great grandparents to some of the guests, made plans for their summer vacations on Tomahawk island each year. The club now consists of one large cottage and 13 small cottages.

A cook and waiter are hired each year during the summer months to take the duty of cooking and serving of the vacationers' hands, and is run on a non-profit basis. The island covers 50 scenic acres.

Those present at the dinner were, the Arthur Macdonalds of Birmingham, the R. B. Hiltz and the Richard Hagues of Detroit, Miss Helen Facke of Cleveland, Ohio, and the Barnham Kings of Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. M. J. Green entertained at a luncheon in her North Adams road home Oct. 22. The ten guests were all old friends. From Birmingham came, Mrs. George Kim, from Berkeley came Mrs. Charles Norton, while the remaining guests arrived from Detroit area.

Home again after a week's hunting trip in northern Michigan is Floyd Warbler of Hollingsbrook drive. Warbler and his companions hunted in the West Branch area, bringing home the prize of two deer. Warbler was elected "chef" during the outing. Those enjoying his cooking were, Floyd Sims,

The Sports Junior varsity continued their winning streak by defeating the Wolverines 20 to 7, Saturday morning at Birmingham High. The Spartans varsity gave the Wolverines a tough tussle in losing 13 to 6. Even though it was a chilly morning there was a good turnout of North Adams residents. The last game of the Little Football league season will be played Saturday at 9 a.m. at Birmingham High. The Spartans will play the Browns. All North Adams residents are urged to be on hand for this final game.

The Leonard Lane subdivision held their general fall meeting Thursday evening in the multi-purpose room of the high school. Conducting the meeting were the
