

Receives Wings

Aviation Cadet James E. Lapine recently received his commission as a Second Lieutenant and the wings of an air force pilot following a graduation ceremony at Greenville air force base, Mississippi. Lieutenant Lapine is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James I. Lapine of Woodland, Birmingham.

A man whose normal weight is 150 pounds would weigh about 50 pounds if all the water in his system were dried up.

WHY?

Are Wedding Rings Round? No Posies?

In hieroglyphics of Egyptians, reportedly first to use wedding band, circle represented the unending or eternity. So circular ring symbolized vow of eternal devotion. Form also signified rounding of life, joining of two halves—or was relic of fetters and cuff irons which bound earlier captive brides. Greeks and Romans often inscribed ring with sentiment vowing stable affection. Britons engraved posies like "My heart and I until I die" inside. But motto of thrice married John Thomas, Bishop of Lincoln, in 1758, for his fourth bride read, "If I survive, I'll make them five!"

Fall Events At Various Colleges

Entering college, pledging fraternities and being named to the dean's list have been fall events at various colleges for local Birmingham students. Named recently to the dean's list for excellence in scholarship at Amherst college was Robert Vogel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armin H. Vogel of Timberlake drive, Bloomfield Hills.

John W. Appleford of Broadway, Birmingham, recently became a pledge of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at Dartmouth college. Freshman sophomore, Appleford plans on majoring in economics. Bill Garrison, a student at Hanover college, is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He is majoring in physics.

HASIL BRIGGS, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Briggs, Jr. of Martell drive was one of five students to attain an all "A" average at Hillsdale during the spring semester.

Pledging to the Iota Mu chapter of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at Massachusetts Institute of Technology is Don Twyman, son of Mr. L. R. Twyman of Mystic Valley drive, Birmingham.
