

Shake, Pal!

To demonstrate the idea behind the parish dance they are sponsoring Saturday night, two members of the Ushers club of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church extend a friendly handshake of welcome to one another. Jim Boale (left), dance chairman, and Jack Cleary, co-chairman, say the event is the annual fall social get-together, plus a get-acquainted affair to which new members of the parish are especially invited. Dancing is from 9 till 1 a.m. Saturday at Birmingham country club. The Ushers' club sponsors the event on behalf of the athletic program at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school.

Women's Meets Slate Varied Program Subjects

First week of the month means church women's groups will be meeting, and Birmingham groups will hear a variety of subjects discussed by speakers at their get-togethers next week.

Next Wednesday at St. James' Episcopal church, the Woman's auxiliary will hear two speakers from the staff of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan discuss attitudes and conditions in the parish, community and world.

The speakers are Mrs. F. K. (Nan) Sparrow, of Ann Arbor, Christian social relations chairman of the diocese, and Rev. Joseph A. Pelham, assistant to the director of the diocesan department of Christian social relations.

MRS. SPARROW HAS also been active in the international affairs committee of the Michigan Council of Churches. Mr. Pelham has recently published a book, "Parish Handbook for Christian Social Relations."

Last summer he attended the Yale summer school of alcohol studies.

The auxiliary has changed its time schedule for meetings, with church board meeting now set for 9:30 a.m., Holy Communion at 11 a.m., and luncheon and program at 12:15 p.m.

FIRST BAPTIST church's Women's missionary society will hear Rebecca Gill, director of the Baptist children's home, next Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. The business meeting begins at 11:30 a.m., and luncheon will be served at 12:45 p.m. by the Esther circle.

Mrs. John L. Barrett is in charge of the afternoon program, which begins at 1:30 p.m., with devotions by Mrs. Farno Green.

The nursery will be open for pre-schoolers.

HOLY NAME Altar society will hear a talk on "Your Voice is You" from a representative of Michigan Bell telephone company at the group's meeting Monday at 1 p.m. at St. Anne's hall.

Members of St. David's guild will be hostesses for the meeting. First Methodist church WSCS has invited Mrs. Jewell Smoot to speak Wednesday on the subject, "You Are My Witnesses" at their meeting in fellowship hall, with luncheon at 1:45 p.m.

Mrs. Smoot, wife of the pastor of Detroit Strathmore Methodist church, is president of the Detroit Methodist ministers' wives association. She traveled extensively in Europe this summer.

Hostesses Plan Dessert-Coffees For Women Members

Invitations to dessert and coffee parties at members' homes have been extended to all women of the congregation of Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

Women's society members who will be hostesses for get-togethers in their areas next Thursday at 1 p.m. are Mesdames Theo. Wugasser, Jr., Donald Irwin, Gustave Cherna, Norman Phillips, Hans Olsen, Kenneth LaBarge, John Barnes, Harold Storck and W. D. Gorgill.
