Fifth Grade Students Broadcast UN Programs

WALNUT LAKE—Should anyone be interested in an answer to a question concerning the United Nations, they more than likely could find the answer by asking a fifth grader at Walnut Lake school.

BY MARION PATRICK
All last week the work and ideas of the U. N. were stressed during U. N. week at the school when Miss Pecha and Mrs. Fremont's fifth graders gave three radio broadcasts.

Wednesday morning Mrs. Fremont's room broadcast over the school's public address system a program entitled "The Get-together Dinner." Students participating in this program were Pam Oetinger, Milton Dahl, Alan Williams, Dennis Mrowczynski, Penny Pittard and Ruth Johnson.

THURSDAY MORNING'S program was entitled, "A Nickel and a Dime." Marsha Oprea was the announcer with J. W. Aiken, Jean Hellebrand, Liz Trzos, John Collick and Ricky Madren, Caroline Marx, Candy Schaefer, Joyce Smith, Bonnie Rowe, Douglas Jardine and Jimmy Young all taking part.

To wind up the U. N.'s week a final program was given Friday morning which included the play "Six Chairs for UNESCO," a poem and a prayer.

THE LOBBY OF THE school had a large display of articles of clothing, money, dolls and baskets.

ALL TREAT—NO TRICKS When You Own Your Own Home!

For the family looking for a moderate home, yet don't want to settle for a "matchbox", and would like to live in a neighborhood of friendly families parallel to their own, this brick home is the perfect answer!

Along with 3 bedrooms there is an upstairs birch paneled all-purpose room that serves as a play area, sewing room, home office, or hobby center. The screened porch, extra lav, new garage, wonderful storage space, and fenced yard contribute further to the livability of this home.

$19,750 is certainly a moderate price and the inclusion of extra built-in features, carpeting, and beautiful landscaping makes it that much more so!

Near Quorton Lake, a short walk to Baldwin School, Holy Name and Woodward Avenue.

4 Bedrooms, 2 baths upstairs with a second floor den. On the first floor is a new lavatory, living room fireplace, full dining room, and a kitchen snack bar.

In excellent condition, with a new roof, new gas furnace, new doors on the two car attached garage, aluminum storms and screens, the price is low in this "top" area at $29,900!

Large Families are wonderful! And a really big Colonial is just what is needed, preferably in Bloomfield Village, as is the stately home shown here.

5 Bedrooms and 2 baths, all on the second floor, removed from the noise and activity center. More good news—first floor utility room, 2 fireplaces in both the living room and ready-for-fun rumus room. The charming dining room has a bay, which is also a feature of the library. There is a family breakfast room, 2 lavs, screened porch, and two car attached garage.

Spotless! And 150' of beautifully landscaped lawn. Move right in. $49,000.

A tranquil setting, with lake privileges perfectly complements such an extraordinary ranch style home.

In the living room, a raised hearth ledgerock fireplace. There are 3 bedrooms, a library, dining room, oversized garage, 2 baths, closets and planned storage for every need.

Custom built just two years ago with all hardwood floors; the most superb condition. Low taxes! This will not be available for long at $34,900.
