Mrs. Wright Hitt and Mrs. Robert Smith entertained 16 neighbors for a dessert buffet last week at Mrs. Smith's home on Valley Forge.

Wright Hitt of Valley Forge spent the past weekend visiting his mother in Kansas City.

Jimmy Haefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haefer of Valley Forge, celebrated his fifth birthday yesterday with a party at his home.

Both troops meet every Friday in the all-purpose room of the school.

Troop numbers have not been given yet as this must come from the Girl Scout headquarters and will be announced when the girls are invited at their fifth official meeting.

WHEN POSSIBLE, the two troops will parallel activities so that as they associate in school the members of each troop will have things in common. From time to time they will have joint activities such as this week's meeting when the troops got together yesterday for a hike to the cider mill.

Attending both organization meetings with the leaders and mothers was Mrs. Penny Marsh of Pickering road who is district chairman for this area.

Pumpkins Decorate Halloween Table

Valley Woods—Jack Frost and the old fa' hags fought it out at the Halloween parade sponsored by the Valley Woods Women's association Sunday afternoon. Over 100 make believers turned out.

A tall in residential costume line by the fathers to parade down Smallwood drive, led by a calliope mostly playing.

The parade stopped at the Ken Kittles yard which was gaily decorated with colored balloons tied in the apple trees. The carnival atmosphere was carried out by the continuous playing of the calliope.

Pumpkins decorated the table from which cider and doughnuts were served with parents enjoying plenty of hot coffee. Balloons and grab bag treats were given each child in costume.

Room Mothers Treat

VALLEY WOODS—This afternoon at the Valley Woods school the newly formed room-mothers treated the children by furnishing refreshments in the classrooms. The lower grades wore their scarves, or prettied costumes when they returned from lunch so that they could parade through the hall. Showing that children keep up with the latest adventures, quite a few Zorro's made an appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner Guenther of Plumwood lane will attend the symphony Saturday evening with Mrs. Guenther.

The concert at the Ford auditorium with Father Poole conducting, will be the final of the symphony observance the past months by the Detroit chapter of the American Institute of Architects of which Guenther is treasurer.
