'Haunted House' Still Stands

The old abandoned Keller house on Quanton road still stands but a large garage in the field behind it lies in ashes after a fire of undetermined origin Monday afternoon. Another fire several hundred yards east burned grass in an adjoining orchard at the same time, although the large area between the two fires was untouched. Two Bloomfield Hills Trucks and the Cranbrook truck responded. Flames from the garage shot one hundred feet in the air early as the tinder-box structure burned. Hills police report. Volunteer firemen stand watch (above).
