Births, Birthdays, Bridges Highlight Week's Activities

A group of gregarious ex-Gracefield Terrace residents gathered recently at the Brooklawn road home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Klintworth. The gathering, reminiscent of bygone days, enjoyed cocktails and dinner.

The group included Mr. and Mrs. Ted Young, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Page Noll, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ash and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Matton.

They enjoyed visiting together and the children became fishing enthusiasts.

Miss Marcia Case was guest of honor on August 18 for her sixth birthday party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Case of 4719 Witherbee road.

Those helping Marcia celebrate on her big day were Debbie Dur-

Motoring to Lake Charlevoix for a few days of relaxation on Derby road for an evening of cards. The foursome included Mrs. Robert Crawford, Mrs. George Scallatis, and Mrs. Vincent Todaro. Dessert was served by the hostess.

Five boy friends of Donald Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reid of Witherbee road gathered to celebrate his ninth birthday last Friday.

Luncheon was served to David Dougherty, Roger Case, Tom Coulson, Carl Swanson and Johnnie Staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Distler of Brooklawn road announce the arrival of their seven pound four ounce son, Robert Roland Jr., born September 2 at William Beaumont hospital.

On arrival home, the baby was greeted by three year old sister Debbie and his maternal grandmother Mrs. J. Cline McKenna from Shaker Heights, Ohio.

One week before school started, the Clyde Mulherns and children were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. John L'Hote of Bloomfield Hills at their summer home at Canada Creek, Michigan.

A side trip was taken so that Tommy, twins Michael and Mary James, and John Mulhern could see the much talked about Mackinac bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford of Derby road and children Bobby and Pam returned recently from a week spent at Cassville, Michigan. Highlight of the vacation for the children was an afternoon spent at a county fair where they saw a talent show.

Troston Manor residents on Witherbee road jointly entertained for the Leslie Roses, who were former residents, at a bon voyage party.

The group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte and included Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, Mr.

Mulhern, Mary Jo Mulhern, Patty and Ann Kaufman and her younger sister Beth.

Before the ice cream and cake was served the girls enjoyed many a game such as hunting for pennies and buttons. Each child left the Cases' home with many favors, umbrella fans, doll size tables and chairs and small banks.

A sojourn in New York City was spent recently by Dr. and Mrs. William Mahan of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor. Attending the American Psychological Association convention, Dr. Mahan addressed the convention on the subject of "The School Psychologist in a School Mental Health Program."

Combining pleasure with business the Mahans spent every free moment visiting points of interest the city holds. As a remembrance of their trip they had their portraits painted by one of the Greenwich Village artists.

A dessert-bridge was on the social calendar for the Robert Crawfords of Derby road when they entertained their couples last Saturday evening. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Bass, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anzick, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roney, Mr. and Mrs. John Ellason and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jorgenson.

Mrs. Leslie Rose of Detroit was hostess at a bridge luncheon at a country club recently. The foursome included Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Myron Fisher and Mrs. Thomas Schulte.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Iverson of 1712 Gracefield road announce the arrival of a daughter, Sara Jane, born August 28 at William and one half years old. The children's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Harold Geary, is visiting them from Benton Harbor, Michigan.

Port Austin on Lake Huron was the vacation spot chosen by Mr. and Mrs. John Kleene and boys Jack and Steve of 1872 Derby road. Three and a half weeks were spent just enjoying the summer activities at the resort.

The evening was spent opening gag gifts and discussing the itinerary of the Roses' European tour.
