MRS. KENNETH P. BOTTOMS

The garden of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Taipale's Bloomfield Hills home over-looking Island Lake was the scene of their daughter's wedding reception following her marriage Saturday afternoon.

Susan Henrietta Taipale exchanged vows and rings with Kenneth Philip Bottoms at an outdoor ceremony at Kirk-in-the-Hills. The Rev. Harold DeWind officiated.

The bodice of Susan's white taffeta gown was of albeon lace trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. She wore a crown of orange blossoms and rhinestones and carried phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

MAID of honor, Janet Call Gangler, wore a dull satin cocoa gown with matching hat and veil. She carried orange-toned gladiolus and wheat grass.

Bridesmaids were Jane Wallace, Jean Carter, Marva Vladoff and Ann Murphy. They carried gladiolus in a brown tone to contrast with their amber satin gowns.

SONS of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Bottoms of Riverside, Ont., the groom had his brother, Edward Bottoms, Jr., for his best man. Ushers were Stanley Meneses, Russell Hayes, David McQuig, Gerald Fredericks and James Smithers.

Mrs. Taipale chose beige chiffon and lace and Mrs. Bottoms wore a toast sheath crepe. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids. After honeymooning in Ann Arbor the new Mr. and Mrs. Bottoms plan to live in Ann Arbor.

Jacoby-Austin Vows Said in Massachusetts

The marriage of Ann Austin to George A. Jacoby, Jr., took place in Walpole, Mass., at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. The Reverend J. C. Anderson of the United Church performed the ceremony.

Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Austin of Walpole, Mass. Her husband's parents are the George A. Jacobys of Puritan road, Birmingham.

The bride wore an empire style wedding gown of ivory dulcete satin, fashioned with the scoop neckline finished with appliques of silk organza, short cap sleeves, and a bustle-back skirt ending in a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of tulle was attached to a cap of matching satin trim with tiny pearls. She carried a bouquet of eucharist lilies, roses and stephanotis.
