MRS. JAMES K. DICK

Nancy Jeanne Lingo became the bride of James Kenneth Dick Saturday in St. Cecilia church in Peoria, Ill. The Rev. Edward O'Connor performed the 11:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Lingo of Peoria and James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Dick of Coral Gables, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE WORE a white gown with embroidered lace bodice and pearl trim with gored skirt of silk taffeta. A lace cap secured her short veil of silk illusion. She carried a spray of white orchids and lilies of the valley on her prayer book.

Colette Foley was maid of honor, Barbara Dick, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore American beauty taffeta gowns with a flat bow of the same fabric as headdresses and carried deep red pom-poms.

HAROLD C. PAUL stood as best man. Ushers were Robert Harkness, Theodore Tarrier and Edmund Lingo, brother of the bride.

The bride graduated from Immaculate Conception academy, Davenport, Iowa, and Clarke college, Dubuque, Iowa. Her husband attended Purdue university.

The couple will make their home in LaFayette, Ind.

MRS. WILLIAM ELDER HOHMEYER

Green Satin Frocks Worn by Attendants

Nancy Lee Wangberg and William Elder Hohmeyer were united in marriage Friday evening at the First Presbyterian church in Birmingham. The Rev. Robert Graham performed the 7:30 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the couple are the Gordon Wangbergs of Henretta, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hohmeyer of Hillcrest, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE CHOSE a gown fashioned of rayon taffeta with tucking along bodice and sleeves. A shell cap of lace held her full length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of sweetheart roses and lily of the valley.

Judy Wangberg was maid of honor. She wore a mint green-satin gown with a dark green tuxa headpiece and carried butterscotch mums.

Bridesmaids were Janet Symons, Mrs. Thomas Hitchman and junior bridesmaid, Louise Hohmeyer. They wore gowns identical to the maid of honor.

ROBERT HOHMEYER stood as best man. Ushers were John Chapman, Glen Carlson and Kent Mills.

Mrs. Wangberg chose a beige lace with matching accessories and the groom's mother selected a pink chiffon with matching accessories.

Immediately following a church reception, the newlyweds left for their honeymoon to western Michigan. The new Mrs. Hohmeyer changed to a black linen sheath with matching accessories.

They will make their home in Ypsilanti.

Come to our Schrank's BACK-TO-SCHOOL PAJAMA PARTY

Saturday, September 14, 11 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Slumber sessions really rate on any teen-ager's calendar-of-events. So it follows that sleepwear fashions must be party-pretty and socially acceptable, as well as easy to sleep in. Schrank pajama-party fashions are the answer.

Fun-loving styles in cotton flannel, challis, plisse, broadcloth... action-tailored classics, shorties, granny gowns, night shirts... prints, bold stripes, bright colors. See them all, at our special Schrank showing, Saturday!

There'll be music, Canada Dry ginger ale, door prizes. Do come... bring a friend... you'll have fun!
