MRS. PAUL E. CENTERS

Centers-Gade Nuptials Solemnized Saturday

Five attendants in open blue taffeta gowns preceded Mary Lou Gade down the aisle of Shrine of the Little Flower for her marriage Saturday afternoon to Paul Eugene Centers. Father Florence Hoste solemnized the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Lade of Warwick drive, Birmingham, wore a gown designed by her mother, fashioned of white satin with a portrait neckline featuring a fitted bodice and bustled fullness in the back of the skirt.

A PEARL CAP secured her finger tip veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a white prayer book with an arrangement of mums and roses.

Maid of honor was Patricia Centers. Bridesmaids were Anita Bassler, Joanne Sexton, Dolores Smith and Dolores Hecker. They wore strapless gowns with matching jackets and carried bouquets of tinted blue mums.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Centers of Livonia, asked Claude Centers to be best man. Ushers were Fred E. Gade, Charles Nothaft, Vincent McHenry and Jerome Bassler.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER chose a dress fashioned of coral rose peau de soie featuring a fitted bodice and portrait neckline.

Burrows-Walker Repeat Vows Saturday Evening

Linda Walker and Dale E. Burrows were united in marriage Saturday evening in the First Methodist church of Birmingham. The Rev. Dr. Arnold F. Runkel officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Ohm of Fairway drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. H. Burrows of Manor road, Birmingham.

LINDA CHOSE for her wedding day an alenon lace sheath over white silk taffeta appliqued with tiny pearls. The side panels of her waltz length skirt were of white organza.

A crown of matching lace secured her shoulder length veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of white roses, chrysanthemums and ivy completed the bridal picture.

ASA-Meet Saturday

SOUTHFIELD — Mrs. Russell Mowry of Dunblaine avenue will be the co-hostess at the 12:30 luncheon meeting of Group 1 of Alpha Sigma Alpha on Sept. 14 at the home of Mrs. Walter Shepley of Romeo. Mrs. Mowry will serve the sorority as president for the coming year.

SEATING THE GUESTS were Gary Walker, brother of the bride, and Bernard Ackerman, brother-in-law of the groom.

A dinner reception was at the Kingsley Inn following the ceremony. The newlyweds will travel to New York and afterwards will reside at Big Rapids; where the groom will attend Ferris Institute.

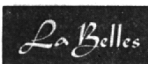

A tactful plan for the bride-to-be

Come to our Wedding Gift Registry and record your selections in silver, dinnerware, crystal and other gifts... your needs and your desires.

Then when friends ask us (as so many of them do) for gift suggestions we will be able to advise them of just what you can use. Moreover, as selections are made we will keep track of them carefully to avoid duplications.

You too, can easily avoid embarrassment or wondering how much they wish to spend simply by saying: "My preferences are in the Wedding Gift Registry at LaBelles."
