

Sigma Kappa Pkian To Make Directory To Aid Handicapped

North suburban group of the Sigma Kappa alumni met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Albert Mess of Hickory Heights. New officers who took over at this meeting were Mrs. Rutherford Hayes, chairman; Mrs. Robert Swanson, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ed Cole, project chairman; and Mrs. Bruce Hayward, publicity chairman. The group chose its project in affiliation with the Birmingham Association for Handicapped Children. It will prepare a directory of Jelpa for parents of the handicapped. Plans were made to entertain the Detroit Sigma Kappa alumni on Sept. 23.

MRS. WILLIAM GATES

Gates-Gray Vows Said In New York Church

The marriage of Nancy Dallas Gray to William Gates took place Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian church of White Plains, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend William J. Wiseman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Dallas Gray of White Plains, formerly of Birmingham. Mr. Gates is the son of Mrs. William Gates of White Plains and the late William Gates. Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk faille designed in princess style with re-embroidered bolero of chintilly lace. Her title veil was attached to a cap of lace and pearls. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Thomas Earle, the bridegroom's sister, was her only attendant. Mr. Earle served as best man.

Senior Women Resume Meetings

Activities for senior women of Birmingham will get under way Friday at the Community House.

Senior Workshop will meet at 10:30 a.m. for sewing, with lunch at noon followed by cards. Ladies who do not wish to bring their own sandwiches may purchase them from the Community House. Dessert and beverages will be served.

Sponsored jointly by the Post-comers and the Community House the Senior Workshop will be starting on its seventh year this week. Originated by the Junior League of Birmingham, it provides opportunities for service and enjoyment to the senior women of the community.

Assisting the ladies will be Post-comers club officers Mrs. Philip Cartwright, Mrs. William Scherer, Mrs. Felix Harrison and Mrs. Charles Henning along with all of the members of the club.

Remember this sign when you choose the executor of your estate!

It's certainly no job for an amateur. Many important and different specialized duties are involved. The job demands experience, financial responsibility, continuous availability, and legal residence in Michigan. The Detroit Bank and Trust Company meets all of these requirements. That is why, over many years, thousands of individuals have named The Detroit Bank and Trust Company as executor under their wills. Our fee? No more than an individual executor is allowed by law. You and your lawyer are invited to discuss the advantages of our services with us at any time. Just telephone Estate Planning Service, W Woodward 2-5670.
