

North Adams Elizabeth Yates MI 6-1682

Sept. Spiced with Football, Vacations, Church Bazaars

While Little Football League, Inc., Jr. Varsity have witnessed a fine turnout of players in the North Adams area, the Varsity is still in need of boys to try out for the sport.

Parents of boys in the 11 to 13 age group are encouraged to contact Robert C. Wandel II, Unit IV manager, or Coach Hardin Kritz, with reference to applications and doctors permits.

Sportsmanship, teamwork and fair play are stressed with weekly practice sessions. The team will play in the unpaid staff of the Little Football League, Inc. All equipment except sweat socks and tennis shoes with rubber cleats are furnished by the League.

Boys 11 years old after Aug. 1 or who turn 13 years old after Aug. 1, who weigh 80 to 110 pounds are eligible for Varsity play. In addition, boys who are over 10 after Aug. 1 and weigh more than 95 pounds are also varsity eligible.

Practice is held daily from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon for the next two weeks. After Sept. 28, practice will go back to four days a week.

Secret church parish on North Adams road, north of South Blvd., are holding their first church bazaar Sunday, Sept. 15. The parish is a mission of St. Hugo church and is headed by Father Francis T. Stack. The time will be from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

There will be booths of different descriptions to interest all ages. Among them will be a country store, handiwork, jams and jellies, baked goods and refreshments. The children will be interested in the pony and fire engine rides, fish ponds, penny pitching, dart throwing and the photo gallery. For those with an appetite there will be a roast beef dinner at $1.50 and 75 cents for children.

A 21-inch color television set complete with installation, a home movie outfit and a barbecue will be a few of the prizes that will be raffled off during the afternoon. The proceeds will go into the parish building fund.

Assisting Donald Mahlmeister, chairman of the bazaar, are Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Don Mahlmeister and Mrs. Bryan Mulvany. Other members are Mrs. Bruce Bashburn, Mrs. Henry Goodell, Mrs. Lloyd Dell, Mrs. Roy Biels and Mrs. Dan Bowen.

PAUL TORRES, CO-OWNER, THE WILLIAM J. FRANKS OF BEECH...

The William J. Franks of Beechcroft entertained 38 guests at a Sunday brunch Sept. 1. The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. S. Menemser and Mrs. Bruce Bashburn, Mrs. Henry Goodell, Mrs. Lloyd Dell, Mrs. Roy Biels and Mrs. Dan Bowen.

Among those out of town guests were Mrs. Alvin Baker of Hollywood Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Willis B. Sargent and Mrs. James Stroud of East Lansing and Colonel and Mrs. Kenneth P. Burnes of Bay City. Guests from Birmingham and Bloomfield were Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Conley, Mr. and Mrs. William Mulchey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dailey and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Etchells.

Visiting here from Beverly Hills, Calif., is Mrs. H. J. Deutch, formerly of Birmingham. She is spending part of her visit with a daughter, Mrs. John Southard of North Adams road, and another daughter, Mrs. Dean Engles of Birmingham. Mrs. Deutch is leaving soon for an extended trip to Europe and plans on visiting England, Holland, Germany, France and Switzerland.

Vacationers are still returning home to the North Adams area. Among them are the L. H. Hanselman of Hylane drive whose scenic trip took them through Wisconsin and Northern Michigan.

Their first stop was in Madison, Wis., where they spent three days. While there Hanselman addressed the Wolverine club, an alumni of the School of Banking and the University of Wisconsin, of which he is president this year.

From Wisconsin they drove thru the Upper Peninsula and northern Michigan where they made many stops at points of interest.

The John Atkinsons of Hylane drive have been vacationing in and around Michigan City for the past six weeks.

European settlements were made in the south of the present Orange Free State of South Africa between 1810 and 1820.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Peed of W. Orchard Hill drive announce the birth of a son, John Jeffrey, Sept. 1. The baby was born at the William Beaumont Hospital and weighed 7 lbs. 10 oz. They have another son, Kent Frank, 16 months old.

The Peeds are also newcomers to W. Orchard Hill drive, formerly of Oak Park. Peed is an engineer with Paramount Engineering, Detroit.

Mrs. Peed's mother, Mrs. Franklin Von Gunter, of Fort Wayne, Ind., is presently visiting and helping with the new arrival.

JOAN CHOSE a gown fashioned of silk organza featuring a sabbina neckline and chapel train trimmed with sequins on alencon lace. A matching headpiece secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis and ivy.

Maid of honor, Judy Gray, wore a Nile green gown trimmed with lace. A matching net headpiece and colonial bouquet of yellow mums completed her outfit.

JOHN SHERROD, brother of the groom, stood as best man. Seating guests were Bill Dougggett, Dick Gray and Gary Rosenberger. The bride's mother selected a beige lace sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Sherrod chose a cream lace over pink taffeta with matching accessories.
