

Lathrup Social Briefs

Reverend Lorenzo Todd, associate minister of the community church in Lathrup, has just returned with his family from an extended automobile camping trip in the west, covering all of eleven states.

While out west the Todd's visited Mr. Todd's sister, Doris, in Chico, Calif.

The Women's Association of the Community Congregational church held their first meeting of the season Wednesday, September 11. Elaborate plans are being made for the Fall with several parties scheduled, including a millinery show.

Bruce Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stephenson of Stratago, is currently stationed at a Seabee base at Davisville, Rhode Island, and momentarily expecting to be sent to Puerto Rico where he will probably remain until January when he is due to get out of the service.

Grace had been ceremonial guard in Washington, D. C. for a year. At the present time his wife is remaining here with the Stephensons and she receives further news from her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. White of Rainbow drive recently returned from their summer home at Waquoit Beach, Ontario, where they spent the entire month of August. Some very nice weather made the swimming and boating especially enjoyable. Visitors of the Whites were Mr. and Mrs. R. Sturman of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Viala had as guests recently relatives from San Quentin. The Adamsons were here recently from Cleveland, Ohio. Adamson is connected with the Laing Lathrup Co. with offices in the Fisher Bldg.

The three children in the family are Ken, 9, Scott, 7 and Matt, 3. The two older children will be attending Lathrup school.

Adamson is particularly interested in golf as a sport, and both Mr. and Mrs. Adamson are avid bridge players.

Mr. and Mrs. James Layman, who were married August 24, recently visited Layman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mack of Lathrup, for the weekend.

The Laymans are now nicely settled in their new apartment in Lansing where Layman is a senior at Michigan State University and Mrs. Layman is teaching kindergarten.

George Ubridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Ubridge of E. California drive, has just returned from Japan. He will be there for just a short time as his squadron is assigned to Hawaii where he will be assigned in the next week or two. Ubridge recently graduated from school and is attached to the Naval Air Force.

George's brother, Carl, is now taking basic training at Fort Belvoir, Kansas, and will be home on furlough around the 21st of this month. He was married June 2, in East Detroit.

While in the Army, Carl hopes to be assigned to Band. He majored in music at Olivet College and plays the French horn.

Just making it before school started, the Ray Fay family of San Jose returned from a family motor trip and visit to a dude ranch in Patagonia, Arizona.

The trip was Mrs. Fay's first visit to the west beyond Chicago, and she loved every minute of it. The younger members of the family were especially interested in a visit to Tombstone and a trip into Mexico.

Ray, Jr. found the work of a ranch foreman very interesting and was permitted to assist his uncle Fred Voorhees in his duties around the Rail-X-ranch. Judy, Kathy, Debbie and Johnny enjoyed a jeep ride into the mountains and around the 25,000 acre ranch. Girl Scout Kathy learned so much about horses while on the visit that she will now be able to apply for her horsemanship badge.

The Lathrup Youth Bowling League will swing into action at 12:30 Saturday, Sept. 14. Any young people wishing to bowl with the group may call Carol Graveline or Clarence DeGroot for information. The league is open to teenagers from 13 to 18. The league will meet at Berkeley recreation as in previous years.

The Village Square Dance Club will hold its first fall meeting at the high school cafeteria on Sept. 21 at 6:30 p.m. Officers of the club met at the home of the Mrs. Plumtree last Wed. evening to complete plans for the season. Working in husband and wife teams, the officers are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Plumtree, chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Zattel, co-chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Peron, treasurer and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Robinson, membership.

Past chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marquis were present at the meeting to lend the benefit of their experience. Just at the close of the meeting someone noticed the beautiful display of northern lights and the meeting adjourned to the Plumtree garden for the show.

The Village Cooperative Nursery School at Evergreen road and 11-Mile will start at 9 o. m. Monday

Benefit Tea Given for Three Nuns

A Benefit Tea in honor of the nuns who will be leaving the convent school was held September 8. There was a very nice turnout to meet Sister Marie Grace, Sister Rita Margaret and Sister Michael James.

A striking table was set up with a book of salutations and a desk, ribbon saying "Welcome Sisters."

Another new addition to the Canterbury Gardens area is Richard Carr of Wilshire. Richard was born at William Beaumont hospital August 7 and weighed eight pounds 13 ounces at birth. Another son is Roger 4 1/2.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kenyon of Redwood Blvd. along with son Billy, Jr. spent two weeks at Black Lake near Onaway. Mrs. Kenyon's parents and brothers went along for the trip. A visit was also made to Petoskey and Indian River.

Cambridge Village Social Briefs

Mrs. Fred Bloom of Red Leaf Lane recently returned from a six week trip to London, England. Mrs. Bloom was a war bride and originated from London. It was her first trip back to England in eleven years.

Mrs. Bloom flew there and back by way of BOAC with her two boys, Peter and Kevin. A wonderful time was had visiting old school friends and the many relatives she has there.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Honer of Red Leaf Lane had as guests recently Mrs. Honer's sister and family from Denver, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Raymond and daughter Lisa.

The Ramonays, after residing out west for the past six years, will make their permanent home in Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brush of Shagbark just returned from four days at a cottage on Walloon Lake, near Petoskey. Son, Perry, accompanied his mother and father.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pfister of Shagbark drive, along with daughter Karen, spent nine pleasant days at a hunting lodge in Canada near Bancroft, Ontario.

The family enjoyed fishing and riding in their jeep through the wild country. The area was so uninhabited the Pfisters found it necessary to remove a beaver dam from the road each morning so the road would not be washed out.

Free Teen-Age Lathrup Dance

A free teen-age dance for boys and girls of Lathrup village is scheduled for Sept. 28 at the Lathrup school on Southfield road. Frankie Paul, the radio and TV personality, will bring his orchestra to play for the occasion that evening. An added attraction will be Micky Shorr, WXYZ disc jockey, who will pass out records as souvenirs.

FOOD AND REFRESHMENTS will be handled by professional chefs. The party is free to Lathrup teenagers and their guests and is limited to 150 couples on a first-come-first-served basis.

Tickets must be picked up this evening, Sept. 12, from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the House in the Woods in Lathrup.

Looking Into A Problem

Looking into the sewer situation in Lathrup village are Jay Schaff, left, and Mack Carney, field supervisor and work leader of National Plover Rodding Co. of Chicago, low bidders for the job of cleaning 23,000 feet of the city's sewers within a period of 60 days. The job, upon completion, will mean that half the city's systems will be cleaned. The shaft paralleling the rung ladder is a casing for a 1200 foot steel rod that is capped with an auger which removes the most tightly clogged obstructions.

Oakland Hills Social Briefs

He is presently employed as a designer for Chrysler corp. and working at Central Engineering in Highland Park.

The Nicklins both enjoy art work and do a great deal of reading. Nicklin is especially interested in sports cars, owning an Arnold MG himself. He also attends all the races and sports car shows he can.
