Walnut Lake Social Briefs

Marjorie Votey, former principal of the Walnut Lake school, was among the artists whose work was on display at the Art exhibition at Northwestern Michigan Community college at Traverse City. This exhibition is sponsored by the Arts and Crafts Club of which Miss Votey is a member. She now makes her home in Traverse City where she is a second grade teacher in the public school.

Home again, after an enjoyable vacation at Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, are Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Morrow of Putnam road. The highlight of their trip was a family reunion and a birthday party for Mrs. Morrow's father, John T. Enderby who celebrated his 90th birthday.

Two Walnut Lake couples have returned from a vacation in Northern Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wade and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bosard joined forces on a fishing trip in the Canadian Chapeau district. The husbands did the fishing, while the girls enjoyed cabin-sitting and reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Watkins, of Putnam road, returned recently from a week's vacation at Lake Charlesville. The past week-end they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Michael Garza of Saginaw.

Nine Youth Win 4-H Awards

Nine 4-H club members from this area received awards at the 4-H club show held at Michigan State university, East Lansing, Aug. 27 through Aug. 30. Blue ribbon winners were: Laura Saymke, soil conservation, first year; Robert Seymke, bicycle safety; Carol Brodie, photography, third year; Paul Norland, handicraft, second year; and Douglas Norland, electricity, second year.

RED RIBBONS were awarded to Sharon Brodie, advanced photography; Sarah Snyder, handicraft, third year; and Ralph Hoxie, electricity, third year. These young people advanced to the state show after winning in their respective field at county level.

65-Acre Subdivision Okay'd Conditionally

BLOOMFIELD — A 65-acre subdivision on the Jaikins property between Lone Pine and Quanton roads west of Telegraph was approved by township board subject to approval by the Oakland county road commission.

Samuel Walker, who presented the plat, said plans included partial vacation of the north portion of Bayley road. This approval must come from the road commission.

Braes Social Briefs

Kathryn Lucille Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Mills of Eastmoor road, left Sept. 2 to enter St. Catherine's Convent at Racine, Wis. She will attend high school as an aspirant in the Dominican order. Her first visit home will be during Thanksgiving vacation.

House guests of the Russell Krohmers, of Dartmoor road, are Mr. and Mrs. Russell W. Krohmer, Jr. and small son James, of Cleveland, Ohio. Young Krohmer has joined his father in the A. A. Furnace and Boiler Co. and will move his family from Cleveland to their recently purchased home in Oak Park in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schumacher of Eastmoor road returned recently from a three-week California vacation. They visited relatives in Los Angeles and Riverside, and did considerable sight-seeing in San Francisco.

Seeing Niagara Falls through the eyes of their children was a real experience for Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Conte of Braemoor trail. The boat trip on the "Maid of the Mist" was a wonderful adventure to David, 11, and Donna, 8, while to their parents it was, to say the least, slightly damp.

Another hilarious bit of adult education was the overnight trip to Chicago, by plane, accompanied by the humorous quips that can come only from youngsters, on their first plane ride.

Mrs. Robert Kreuz, of Braemoor trail, could apply name her summer home at Port Austin, "Camp-of-many-boys." Her three sons, Danny, Dick and David, had a steady flow of friends arriving and departing for the entire summer. Mrs. Kreuz returned with the lively lads just in time for the start of school.

Voters League To Meet Tuesday

WEST BLOOMFIELD — The League of Women Voters of West Bloomfield will hold a general membership meeting on September 17, at the West Bloomfield township hall, on Orchard Lake road. A one o'clock buffet luncheon will precede the meeting.

Mrs. Hope F. Lewis of Birmingham, the guest speaker, is one of four appointed representatives on the board of supervisors for Birmingham. She has been in business for herself for 20 years.

Car, Truck Hit By Fire Monday

BLOOMFIELD — A car fire and a truck fire sent township firemen on runs Monday. An estimated $250 damage was done to a 1957 foreign car owned by Richard Avery, 4360 Squirrel. The fire was believed caused by a short in the electrical system. It occurred at Adams and Ivy lane. Most of the damage was to the motor compartment.

DAMAGE ESTIMATED at $100 was done to a 1947 dump truck owned by Percy Dunn of Pontiac when a one-gallon can of brake fluid exploded in the cab, firemen report. The driver was slightly burned. Damage was confined to the cab. The fire happened at Franklin and Telegraph.
