MRS. JOHN D. BIRNEY

Mr. and Mrs. Birney Honeymooning in N.Y.

Bridal attendants in blue taffeta gowns preceded Shirley Louise Dusbeier down the aisle of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church for her marriage Saturday to John Daniel Birney. The Rev. Lucian A. Hebert solemnized the double ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Dusbeier of Auburn Birmingham, wore a wedding gown of taffeta and sateen lace featuring a sabrina neckline of lace and tiny pearls.

A CROWN of pleated taffeta held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a white orchid with white streamers on a prayer book.

Mrs. Norma Carey was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Carolyn McLease, Noreen Harrigan and Patsy Spencer.

Attendants were gowned alike in princess style dresses accented by a pleated empire band and streamers at the back. They carried white carnations with blue streamers.

JAMES BIRNEY stood as best man. Ushers were John Frederick, Donald Babbitt and Michael O'Connor.

The groom is the son of Mrs. John Birney of Baldwin, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Birney.

Mrs. Dusbeier chose an orchid dress with a lace bodice and the groom's mother selected a blue silk sheath. Both mothers had white roses.

A garden reception was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. North F. Carey.

Pink Chiffon Gowns Worn by Attendants

St. James Episcopal church was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Margaret Virginia Norris to Forest Kendall Fowler, Jr. The Rev. W. E. Snoxell performed the 3 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 175 guests.

Margaret is the daughter of Mrs. Edie Erickson Norris of Kirkshire, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest K. Fowler of Harmon, Birmingham.

Immediately following a reception in the church parlor, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to Harbor Springs.

Upon returning, they will reside in Northville.

THE BRIDE chose a full length gown fashioned of antique taffeta featuring a sabrina neckline, pleated bodice and short sleeves. A crown of pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried white rose buds, carnations and stephanotis.

Nancy C. McGilvray was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kay Fowler and Mary Anne Norris. They were gowned in pink nylon chiffon dresses with pink accessories.

Charles C. Wilson, Jr., stood as best man. Ushers were Kirk Lewis and Robert Norris.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER chose a blue satin sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Fowler selected a turquoise silk sheath with black accessories.
