Lecture Tea Is New Service To Community

A community service in the form of a lecture tea is a new program being offered by Scott Shuptrine.

On Wednesday, the day which the store is normally closed, women of Birmingham organizations are being invited to hear lectures and illustrations of home furnishings concerning subjects and subject materials of which the public has little knowledge.

THE FIRST of these events is planned for 2 p.m., Sept. 25, when guests will be informed on the topic "All About Genuine Leather," followed by a colored film on "The Purple Cow."

Besides showing various ways leather can be used in the home there will be a display by Jacobson's and Hornings showing how leather is used in women's apparel and shoes and a Ford completely upholstered in leather.

Miss Audrey Marriner, local representative for the leather upholstery group, will make the presentations.

Sick Poor Fashion Tea

Another of those lavish fashion teas, sponsored by the Auxiliary of the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor, is being planned for Sept. 24 in the newly acquired Archdiocesan Catholic Charities building.

The elevated choir dais will provide the stage for the models and symphonic strains will set the theme as each inspiration appears.

Among the local mother and daughter teams asked to assist will be Mrs. Robert B. Gotfredson and Mrs. Robert L. Gotfredson, Mrs. Howard T. Keating, Mrs. Robert E. Fraught, Mrs. Timothy Crues, Mrs. Howard T. Keating, Jr., Mrs. Lee Keating, Mrs. Walter A. Bayer and Mrs. Theodore Burns.

Others in the Birmingham contingent aiding in arrangements are Mrs. Bernard O'Meara, Mrs. Robert Ryan, Mrs. Richard Ruen, Mrs. John P. O'Hara, Jr., Mrs. J. J. Cucchi and Mrs. William N. Cutting.

Honored at Tea

A tea was given at the home of Mrs. Ronald Blanchard, 291 East Southlawn, Birmingham, for Mrs. John Schultz's mother, Mrs. Peter Dinges, who is here from Wiesbaden, Germany. Twelve neighbors attended the tea.

Project Meeting

Old and new officers of the Adams Village Extension club gathered at the home of the new president, Mrs. Lynn Geiger for a get-acquainted meeting. First general meeting to discuss this year's projects will be Sept. 24 at the home of Mrs. Harold Mikesell, 300 Haynes.
