

One of life's most generous and finest offerings is presence of "concord of sweet sound", in other words: good music. There is something almost "magically" wonderful in the fact that Providence gave man the hunger for and ability to respond inwardly to harmony. What a stark and less lovely existence without music!

Bride Wears Heirloom Necklace

MRS. JOHN FRIES KELLY

An heirloom necklace of pearls and amethysts accented the bridal attire worn by Ellen Anne Macdonald for her marriage to John Fries Kelly at 3 o'clock Saturday. The Rev. Eugene Snoxell officiated at the doubling rites in St. James Episcopal church. Ellen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Roderick Macdonald of Pleasant street and her husband's parents are the John H. Kellys of Watport, N.Y. The bride wore a floor length princess style gown of Italian silk applique with corded alencon lace at the neck and front panel of skirt. A Juliet cap covered with matching lace and seed pearls held in place her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried fujimums and English ivy.

ISABEL MACDONALD was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a honey-colored princess peau de soi gown of afternoon length. Her flowers were autumn shades of fujimums.

Bridesmaids were Sidney McMary, Ruth Yeomans and Sue Harley. Their dresses were identical to the maid of honor's only in a cinnamon shade. Capt. Louis Galan was best man. Seating the guests were John Chalcraft, Theodore Richmond and Robert Cressett.

MRS. MACDONALD chose a mink colored peau de soi sheath dress with a rose corsage pinned to her bag. Mrs. Kelly wore a rose corsage with her green sheath.

After a wedding trip to Canada the newlyweds will make their home in Lansing where the groom is a student at Michigan State university.

Village Players Set First Public Show for October

With an all-star cast of veteran actors, Birmingham Village Players will launch their 25th season with "The Teahouse of the August Moon" as their first public show, scheduled for the week ends of Oct. 18-19 and Oct. 25-26. Playing the key role of Sakini, the wily Okinawan interpreter, will be Warren Hersey of West Maple, whose performance as Ensign Fulver in "Mr. Roberts" several seasons ago helped make that show one of the most successful in Players' history.

Two others from the "Mr. Roberts" cast, John A. Gilray, Jr., who played the title role and W. Carleton Scott, who played the cargo ship captain, also are in the "Teahouse" cast.

Gilray will play Capt. Fishy, the army officer, and Scott has been cast as Col. Purdy, Fishy's bustling superior in the Okinawa occupation forces. Rehearsals already are under
