Residents of Troyton Manor Welcome Two New Families

Troyton Manor residents welcomed two newcomers on Witherbee road last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Evans and children Diane, 4 years old and Laura, 2 years old moved from Bethesda, Md., although previously they were residents of Birmingham.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Mr. Evans is associated with Jam Handy where he does script writing. Mrs. Evans attended Albion college and was affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. They are members of the Congregational church.

When time permits Evans enjoys airplane flying, woodworking and golfing. Knitting, sewing and bridge are Mrs. Evans' favorite pastimes.

The other newcomer on Witherbee is Mr. and Mrs. James M. Sowers and their son James, 5 years old, from Melrose, Mass. Sowers was graduated from the University of Michigan in their college of engineering and is a member of Trianglo professional fraternity. He also attended Wayne State university's law school. He is employed with the Ford Motor Co. as a quality control engineer.

Little Jimmy is looking forward to attending Penrose elementary school where he'll be in the first grade. His hobbies the Sowers enjoy making home movies, golf and an evening of bridge.

A "koffee-klatch" was held during the past week by Mrs. Thomas Schulte and Mrs. Vernon Doering at the Schulte's home on Witherbee road honoring the new residents, Mrs. James Lowers and Mrs. Leonard Evans.

Those present to greet their new neighbors and enjoy the homemade pecan rolls and coffee in the Schulte's game room were Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Philip Reid, Mrs. James Erwin, Mrs. Myron Fisher, Mrs. Richard Monley, Mrs. Roland Sandy, Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. Benjamin Griffith, Mrs. Gus Coulson and Mrs. William Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Platt, Jr. with their children Jeff and Jim of 2400 Derby returned recently from their annual visit to Berkshire, Mass., to be the house guests of the George Platters, Sr. While away, the family especially enjoyed an old fashioned country fair in Middlefield and were present to see their niece and nephew win a blue ribbon for their 4-H work with cattle and sheep.

Upon their return, the Platters stayed in Canaan, N. Y., in the Finger Lakes area, and also stopped to see Niagara Falls.

A gaily-decorated birthday cake topped with five lighted candles climaxed the luncheon party honoring Fatty Kaufman.

Attending the affair was Marcia Case, Diane Young, Karen Craig, Mary Jo Hibbert, Christine Sparks, Mary Mulhern, Kathy McWilliams, Lynn Carlson and Patty's sister Ann. After enjoying their luncheon at one of the local restaurants, the children returned to the Kaufman's home.

Patty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kaufman of Witherbee road.

A "jobster" boy" was enjoyed last weekend on the outside patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roddy, 2304 Derby.

Those seen tackling the seafood were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Winogarden and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wagner.

A weekend trip on the SS South American was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Herb Ring, 2325 Derby, to Mackinac island. Windy and Elizabeth Ring spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ring in Detroit.

While on the boat, the Rings took advantage of many activities such as marine horse racing, church services and a Saturday night dance.

At the Grand hotel on Mackinac, the boat group were entertained by a show presented by the boat's waiters and waitresses before the return trip.

Satin Accents Bridal Gown

MRS. STEWART L. PECK

Ruth Elaine Titley and Stewart Louis Peck were united in marriage Saturday evening in the Tipton Community church in Tipton. The Rev. David M. Holly performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Titley of Tecumseh. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Peck of Maryland boulevard, Birmingham.

RUTH CHOSE a gown fashioned of white satin and lace featuring long sleeves which ended at points on the hands and fitted bodice. Lace embroidered with sequins and seed pearls formed the Sabrina neckline.

Lace and pearl pillow had secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and strands of ivy completed the bridal picture.

Carol S. Peck, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore an emerald green waltz length dress featuring a fitted bodice, round neckline and short sleeves. She carried a flat wicker basket of mums and pom poms in contrasting colors.

BRIDESMAIDS WERE Kathleen Thomas and Janet Wait. They wore gowns identical to the maid of honor.

Dr. James H. Stegeman stood as best man. Seating the guests were Dale E. Titley, brother of the bride, Robert E. Basham, Lawrence D. Peck, cousin of the groom, and Lt. Daniel P. Robins.

Mrs. Titley selected a blue crepe with black velvet trim. The groom's mother chose a navy blue sheer with lace trim. Both mothers had corsages.

IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING a reception in the church parlor, the newlyweds left for their honeymoon to the Smoky mountains.

The new Mrs. Peck changed to a metallic weave sheath with black accessories to start her trip. Upon returning, they will reside in Birmingham.

Judson Decker, Mrs. Betty Mulder, Mrs. Marilyn Shuyler, Mrs. Hugh Stuffy, Mrs. Harry Leathers, Mrs. John Lohla, Mrs. Leo Clougherty, Mrs. John Ward and Mrs. James Erwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webster of Pleasant, Birmingham, entertained recently at a family dinner in the from out of town.

Despite the frequent rain storms the "Derby-wells roundup" was held yesterday at the home of the William Talbots, 1828 Derby, for 88 hungry guests.

At 8 a.m. the meat was put on the open pit barbecue to cook and at 4:30 dinner was served on tables decorated with paper table cloths using famous western brands for designs. A covered wagon and guests dressed in Indian, cowboy and pioneer day costumes completed the picture.

Entertainment was kept very casual with a few informal cocktail parties given to introduce their guests to their neighbors.

Five-month-old Jonathan took the spotlight for it was the first time his parents' guests had seen him.
