

Vows and rings were exchanged by Mary K. Hollis and Donald V. Nymberg at 10 o'clock Saturday in St. Joseph's Catholic church of Garrett, Ind. The Rev. Leon P. Pisula officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Hollis of Garrett, Ind., and the Jerome Nymbergs of Cromwell avenue, Southfield township.

LONG SLEEVES and a portrait neckline framed in jeweled alienen lace were details of the fitted bodice of Mary's taffeta gown. Lace motifs were repeated on the swag drape which encircled the bouffant skirt, caught up in a bustle back extending to a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion was caught to a scalloped taffeta cap edged with seed pearls. She carried orchids in a white gravebook.

HONOR ATTENDANT, Mrs. Richard Zane was attired in a waltz length gown of crystal-back satin in two shades of apricot. Her princess gown was fashioned with a scoop neckline and cap-sleeves and the bouffant skirt had alternating panels of the two shades. Matching contour band with brow veil completed her ensemble. She carried bronze and yellow mums.

Bridesmaids were Madeline Miller, Mrs. Louise Letizia and Barbara Kempf. They wore attired in identical gowns and headpieces of new mint and carried bronze and gold mums.

JERRY NYMBERG was best man. Seating the guests were Richard Zane, Kenneth Hollis and Louise Letizia.

Mrs. Hollis wore a dress of blue lace over taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of white gladiolus. To Mrs. Nymberg's dress of pink lace over taffeta she pinned a corsage of the same gladiolus.

After a Northern Michigan honeymoon the couple will reside in Detroit.

Newcomers Entertained At Afternoon Punch Party

The Tullamore drive home of Mrs. Robert L. Wallace was the scene of a "punch party" yesterday afternoon. The hospitality committee of Charming Cross Estates assisted the hostess in entertaining the many new residents who have moved into the area in the last six months.

Other subdivisions also have new residents. In Leonard Lane the Fred Eckhouts, formerly of Detroit, are newcomers to Lanegan drive. They have two children, Ricky, 3, and Kathleen, 15 months. Eckhout is a salesman with Baker-Platoon, Detroit. The family are sports enthusiasts.

Another newcomer on Lanegan drive is the M. L. Haas family of Lebanon, Pa. They have two children, Philip, 9, attending Harlan School, and Mary, 12, a pupil at Derby Jr. high. Haas is the district sales manager of television for RCA.

New residents to Wrenwood drive are the Hubert Thomas family of Dearborn. Their three children are John, 21, Frank, 14, attending Derby Jr. high, and Patricia, 5, in the kindergarten at Pembroke. Thomas is a superintendent at Briggs Manufacturing Co. on Maple road, and belongs to the Masonic Lodge. Bowling and landscaping are among the family's interests.

They have just returned from a week's vacation at West twin lake near Lewiston, Mich. Friends of the Thomases, from Dearborn also had cottages near them for the week.

The Leland Morgans of Chestnut Hill drive are newcomers. Their move was from the Greyfield Terrace in Birmingham. They have two sons, Earl, 7, attending Harlan and Kenny, 4. Morgan is an engineer with Ford Tractor on Maple road. The family are interested in archery, swimming and belong to the First Methodist church in Birmingham. Morgan belongs to the Toast Masters Club and is active in the Indian Guides with his son, Earl.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young of Brethly drive announce the birth of a son, Thomas Edward, on Sept. 4. The baby was born at the William Beaumont hospital and weighed 7 pounds. The Youngs have three other children, Peter, 7, Steve, 4, and Susan who celebrated her third birthday on Sept. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Allison of Chestnut Hill drive announce the birth of a daughter, Cecilia Mary, on Sept. 5. The baby was born at St. Joseph hospital in Pontiac and weighed 8 lbs. 8 ozs. They have three other children, Kenneth, 5, Andrea, 4, Janice, 3.

Donald Cornett of Hickory Heights drive finds he can add much to the history discussion on Jamestown, Va., in his class at Harlan.

The week before school began he and his mother, Mrs. Fred Cornett, drove to Jamestown, where they spent many fascinating days touring the area. After the 350th anniversary exhibition in October, the fort, surrounding buildings and land of Jamestown will be made a permanent historical sight.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Prust of Oakhill drive have Mrs. William Prust, his mother, visiting with them this week from Kitchener, Ontario, Canada.

A coffee hour was held at the Butternut Hill drive home of Mrs. William Jackson for interested mothers and den mothers of the Cub Scouts of pack B34. Mrs. Jackson is the new pack mother.

Harlan school will be the pack's new home. It had been sponsored by the Pembroke school.

How fresh can a shirt be?

Fresh as all outdoors, when it's a Jayson the all cotton OXFORD shirt with button-down collar that washes... drips dry... read in wear Soft, absorbent, crisply good-looking as cotton can be... the Jayson Laundeze oxford shirt washes, drips dry, ready to wear with little or no ironing required. What's more, it stays fresher longer, because the remarkable fabric from which it has been "fit to perfection" tailored actually has a built-in resistance to soil and perspiration. And because it is non-chlorine retentive, a bleach can be used when you wash it. See the Jayson Laundeze today.

"My bedside telephone costs only about a dollar a month"

Surprisingly little for all the convenience it brings. Especially for calls at night or when you're cleaning or making beds. You won't have to race downstairs, or to another part of the house when the phone rings.

In addition to the monthly cost there is a small one-time installation charge for extension phones. Your choice of colors, including adjustable loud-soft bell, for extra one-time charge.

To order step-saving telephone convenience for your home, call the Business Office.
