

Newlyweds to Live in Bloomfield

MRS. JOHN LASSALINE

At a Nuptial High Mass Saturday in Gesu church, Bernadine Marie Sink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sink of Detroit became the bride of John Gilbert Lassaline, son of Mrs. Wilfred Lassaline of Fairfield road and the late Dr. Lassaline.

The Rev. Henry Millet, S.J., great-uncle of the bride officiated. Thomas Lassaline, brother of the groom, served as one of the altar boys for the occasion.

THE BRIDE wore a white silk chiffon empire sheath gown. The skirt, which swept into a twin chapel train, and the high bodice were accentuated with wide bands of satin ribbon decorated with clusters of hand made satin rose buds. Her four-tiered pure silk illusion finger tip veil was caught to an open crown cap trimmed with the same motif.

Grace Sink served as maid of honor. Marilyn and Camille Sink, also sisters of the bride, and Theresia Lassaline, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. The flower girl and ring bearer were Mary Ann Clark and Michael Klarer. The attendants were dressed identically in fall pink taffeta, barrel skirted gowns with rhinestone crowns.

THE BRIDEGROOM had his brother, Dr. William Lassaline, as best man. Fred and Lawrence Lassaline, brothers of the groom, Duane Muir, brother-in-law of the groom, and Charles Sink, brother of the bride, served as ushers.

Dressed in pink silk organza, Mrs. Sink pinned a white orchid to her purse. Mrs. Lassaline chose white orchids with her sand peau de soie dress.

After a reception at the Meadowbrook Country club, the couple left for Sea Island, Ga. Upon their return they will make their home in West Bloomfield Hills.

United at Kirk in the Hills

Kirk in the Hills was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Gail Genevieve Smith to Gordon Alexander Mutch. The Rev. Harold C. DeWindt performed the 3:30 o'clock ceremony.

Gail is the daughter of Mrs. Stuart M. Smith of Red Maple lane, Birmingham. Gordon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mutch of Emmons, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE chose a gown of ivory silk and satin designed with a scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. An open crowned cap accented with matching satin rosebuds on the sides secured her three tiered illusion veil. She carried a Bible with an orchid, ivy and stephanotis.

Gwendolyn Elaine Smith was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mable Harabedian, Jill Smith, Nancy McKenzie, Alice MacManus and junior bridesmaids were Mary Maurine Smith and Bonnie Loyd Smith. Michelle Lang was flower girl.

ATTENDANTS wore green ballerina length gowns and carried white mums with ivy and stephanotis.

William Stakson Mutch stood as best man. Ushers were Jack Ewars, Terry Laundry, Donald Dupuis and Robert Gasser.

Mrs. Smith chose a green velvet dress with an orchid pinned to her purse. The groom's mother selected a rose lace dress with an orchid attached to her purse.

IMMEDIATELY following a reception at the Oakland Hills Country Club, the newlyweds left for their honeymoon to Northern Michigan. Upon returning, they will reside in Royal Oak.

Smarts Home from 6-Week Tour of Western Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Smart of Overhill returned last week from a six-week trip abroad. Sailing Aug. 1 aboard the Liberty, they visited London and then Paris.

From Paris they visited their daughter and family. Major and Mrs. Wesley B. Young and sons Randy, 10, and Brad, 7. They are now stationed in Wiesbaden, Germany, for the next two years, having originally lived in Texas and for the past three years in Japan.

Major and Mrs. Young joined them for a tour of Switzerland. Returning to America on the Isle de France, they were quarantined on the boat for three hours in New York harbor as a result of the discovery of six cases of Asiatic flu, one of chickenpox and someone who had smuggled two parakeets aboard. Due to diseases carried by such birds, officials had to inspect the birds before allowing passengers to disembark.

Village young people going to various colleges this week include Linda Rakas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Rakas of N. Glengary. Linda left Monday for her freshman year at University of Michigan. Marie Lindquist will be a sophomore at University of Colorado; Adele Lucas, a sophomore at Michigan State, and Marrie Stevenson

Beverly PTA Plans Meeting Tuesday

Getting acquainted will be the main business on the agenda when the Beverly PTA holds its first meeting of the school year next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school's All-Purpose room.

Malcolm Ferguson, principal, will greet parents, introduce teachers and outline the meaning of this year's program theme, "Your Child's Heritage".

Sharing the program with Ferguson will be Norman Wolfe, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of maintenance, school buses and cafeterias.

After a short meeting presided over by Dr. Harold Fairbanks, PTA president, refreshments will be served.

Mayfair Nursery

Mayfair Cooperative Nursery will have two separate sessions starting this fall. A licensed nursery school teacher will be on duty, plus three assisting mothers. Mrs. Irene Coffman is membership chairman.
