

Five boys relaxing in the lounge at Camp Oakland where they enjoy watching TV, one of the many contributions from local organizations.

Camp Oakland Benefits From Bridge Parties

Benefiting from a series of bridge parties to be Oct. 3, will be Camp Oakland, near Oxford, which is a year-round children's camp. The proceeds will help improve camp facilities and will also enable more children to go there.

During summer more than 500 children attend the camp, and in winter 18 boys live there. Plans are also being looked into for a home for girls during the winter, to be modeled after the boys home.

Opening their homes for the parties will be: Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Mrs. Max Fruhauf, Mrs. Robert Buid, Mrs. Chauncey Burke, Mrs. John Poole, Mrs. H. B. Stubbs, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Mrs. Charles S. Wiston, Jr., Mrs. Edmund C. Leavenworth and Mrs. Howard B. Barker.

MRS. WILLIAM L. GRAHAM, Mrs. John St. Clair, Mrs. Edward Proctor and Mrs. W. S. Graham are on the Birmingham-Bloomfield area committee for this project.

The parties are open to the public, but it is advised that the hostesses be contacted prior to the date of the party, so that she may make the proper arrangements.

Needlework Group Plans Ingathering For October 16

Area members of the needlework guild of America are making preparations for the ingathering of new garments and household linens. Section presidents and members of the executive board who met for luncheon recently at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club learned that the ingathering date is set for Oct. 16 at the Community House.

Mrs. Wright Tisdale, president of the Birmingham - Bloomfield branch, stressed that any person may become a member of the needlework guild by donating two new items.

Hammond Organ Club to Meet Wed.

Birmingham Hammond Organ club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter, 2970 Southbrook, Farmington. Officers elected last June at the annual meeting include Mr. Oscar Flor, president; Mrs. Charles Edwards, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Jack Porter, vice-president. Mr. Flor has asked Richard Chapman and Floyd Bunt, both former presidents, to serve on his executive committee.

SUBURBAN SCENE

"Because it's dark in there." I then explained to him that he should not be afraid of the dark because Jesus was always near to protect him. "Is Jesus in the storage room?" he asked. "Yes," I assured him. Bobby then walked over and opened the door, stuck his head inside and yelled, "Hey, Jesus, hand me that roll of tape over on that table."

A Friend in Need Is a Friend Indeed

We had been studying First Aid in connection with our seventh grade science class. Orville had been having a most difficult time remembering pressure points to stop bleeding. By sheer determination and realization of the importance of the subject, he was finally able to point out the pressure points, even on the face. He practiced applying tourniquets with other pupils.

After proceeding to other matters, the day came for our written check-up on First Aid. Orville pondered quite some time over this question: "An auto accident has happened in front of your house. You discover a friend of yours is bleeding badly from a wound on the forehead. What would you do?" Finally he wrote, "Put a tarneykitt around his neck."
