

How difficult it is to learn that we can be happy only when doing good to others. When, early in life, is conscious for material wealth, generally at a later date concludes that his best satisfaction is learning how wisely to give most of it away. If he still clings to it, death leaves him penniless.

Headmistress, Guest Speaker For Smith Club

Miss Marion Goodale, headmistress of Kingswood school, will be the featured speaker when Birmingham Smith college club has its first fall meeting at 1 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. Richard Van Dusen on England road.

Like most of her sister alumnae clubs throughout the country, the Smith club of Birmingham is primarily concerned with higher education for women, and specifically, the granting of a Smith scholarship to a deserving Michigan candidate.

Miss Goodale's talk will follow this pattern with the topic "To Be or Not to Be"—schools and their views of college, especially geared to the education of women."

MRS. E. STEVEN Bauer, president of the Birmingham area clubs will discuss the scholarship fund project for this year to be presented by the committee of the Seven Eastern Women's colleges of the Detroit area.

The committee has invited Edward R. Murrow to speak at the Ford auditorium on the evening of Oct. 15 and his subject will be "American Foreign Policy."

Serving as officers in the Smith club of Birmingham for the current year, besides Mrs. Bauer, are Mrs. J. Davey Gehring, vice president and publicity; Mrs. William Merrill, secretary; Miss Ann Mock, treasurer; Mrs. John Judd, scholarships; Mrs. George Hillinger, seven college committee; Mrs. James Van Dusen, directory; and Miss Elizabeth, November pecan sales.

Wedding Preformed At Evening Ceremony

FRANKLIN—First Presbyterian church was the scene Friday evening for the marriage of Darlene Ann Kopf to Stanley Anthony Bohinc, Jr. Dr. W. Glen Harris performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Reed of Wellington drive. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bohinc of Cleveland, Ohio.

FOR HER WEDDING day, Darlene chose a gown fashioned of peau de sole with almonon lace trim featuring a sabrina neckline and three quarter sleeves.

A scalloped lace cap with drop pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered by a miniature blue orchid.

The groom wore a light blue silk taffeta princess style gown featuring a scoop neckline for her duties as maid of honor.

Mrs. Robert L. Kopf and Mrs. John R. Bohinc were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor.

Upon returning they will reside in Grosse Point Farms. Jan McCall wore a light blue
