

Wears Sister's Wedding Veil

MRS. JOHN W. KAUSCH

Wearing her sister's veil of Belgian lace, Elizabeth Maude Drake became the bride of John William Kausch at 4:30 p.m. Saturday in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt read the doubling rites.

Her gown of ivory peau de soie was fashioned with a bateau neckline of alencon lace beaded with seed pearls. Long tapered sleeves formed points over her hands. The bouffant skirt fell from the princess line and ended in a court train. She carried shattered white carnations and tiny yellow roses.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Drake of Pilgrim road and Mrs. Helen Kausch of Bloomfield Hills.

MRS. BRADLEY T. Upham, was her sister's matron of honor in a ballerina length taffeta of pale aqua with a scoop neckline and long cap sleeves. The bodice was enhanced with a softly crushed tulle and the bell shaped skirt was accented with floating panels. She wore a band of yellow carnations toward the back of her head and carried shattered yellow carnations and yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Hubert H. Upton, Jr., sister of the bride, Judith Kausch, sister of the groom, Mrs. R. B. Henry and Mrs. William T. Beresford. They wore frocks identical to the matron's only in peacock blue.

Richard D. Tooley was best man. Seating the guests were George E. Orbits, Joseph B. Reid, Edgar B. Bennett and Kenneth W. Kennedy.

MRS. DRAKE wore a street length sheath of blue chantilly lace accented with a chiffon cummerbund and a shoulder corsage of tiny white lilies. John's mother pinned a brown orchid at the waistline of her champagne chantilly lace.

Following a reception at Orchard Lake Country club, the couple left for a wedding trip to Quebec City and New England.

Repeat Wedding Vows To Honor Mothers In Catholic Ceremony

Cynthia Ann Stolte and Thomas Jerry Dunbar were united in marriage Saturday by the Rev. Walter Brecken in the presence of 150 guests. Shrine of Little Flower chapel was the scene of the double-ring ceremony.

MRS. THOMAS J. DUNBAR

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John H. Stolte of Berkley and Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Dunbar of Washington, Birmingham.

FOR HER WEDDING day, Cynthia chose a full length silk gown with chapel train, square neckline with V back, long sleeves and tucked bodice. A cap of pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of roses and ivy.

Maid of honor was Sandra Stolte and bridesmaids were Nancy and Patricia Nealon. A peacock blue ballerina length gown was worn by the maid of honor and bridesmaids wore aqua gowns. Linda Hall was the flower girl and she wore a gown identical to the attendants.

Robert Dunbar stood as best man. Ushers were Harold F. Longdyke, Jr., and Robert Grant Burleigh.

MRS. STOLTE wore a royal blue crepe dress with matching accessories. Mother of the groom selected a cocoa lace with brown accessories. Both mothers had orchids.

Dinner was served at the Maplewood club house for the guests
