Birmingham Coed Assists at Convo

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Susan Lovell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lovell, 312 Clifton, and president of the student council, helped conduct the Honor convocation at Centenary college for women, Hackettstown, N. J., last Sunday. At the ceremony the entire college community took an oath to support the honor code, customs, and traditions which underlie all aspects of campus life.

MRS. DOUGLAS E. KORNEFFEL

Tiara of Seed Pearls Accents Bridal Garb

Carole Mae Hurns and Douglas Earl Korneffel pledged their nuptial vows Saturday in a 8 o'clock ceremony at Drayton Avenue Presbyterian church in Ferndale.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hurns, 17441 Bidwood, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of the Charles F. Korneffel, 17501 Birwood.

CAROLE SELECTED an Italian pure silk gown with fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and oval neckline. A tiara of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a prayer book with stephanotis streamers and an orchid.

Mrs. Beecher Eaves, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Loretta Zaino and Kathy Moir.

Attendants wore blue gowns with matching headpieces and carried sweetheart roses.

BECKER EAVES, brother-in-law of the groom, stood as best man. Ushers were Robert Moir and James Clodfelter.

Mrs. Hurns chose a pink satin dress with matching accessories and an orchid pinned to her purse. Mother of the groom selected a powder blue chantilly lace with matching accessories with a pink orchid corsage.

The young couple left for their honeymoon down south after a reception at Devon Gables. They will reside in Royal Oak.

How fresh can a shirt be?

Fresh as all outdoors,
when it's a Jayson LAUNDEZE

the all cotton OXFORD shirt with button-down collar that washes . . . drips dry . . . ready to wear Soft, absorbent, crisply good-looking as cotton can be . . . the Jayson Laundezze oxford shirt washes, drips dry, ready to wear with little or no ironing required. What's more, it stays fresher longer, because the remarkable fabric from which it has been "fit to perfection" tailored actually has a built-in resistance to soil and perspiration. And because it is non-chlorine retentive, a bleach can be used when you wash it. See the Jayson Laundezze today.

Personally Fitted
by MR. GWYNN

"WORSTED CHEVIOT IN 112 MODEL"

We at Gwynn's are proud to announce this exclusive addition to our New, Expanded, Clothing Department. The 112 Model was designed by Gwynn's to serve as an all purpose type garment of which any part may be worn separately or may be worn together. This garment is tailored along traditional lines. Natural shoulder, lap seams, hook vent, Foulard lining in vest, coat and cap with same foulard tie to match. This lining was specially designed and dyed to match the worsted cheviot fabric of the suit. The fabric is of a tweed nature in muted tones of charcoal grey and charcoal willow with a slight herringbone stripe. Soft to the touch yet substantial to withstand hard wear. The 112 Model can be found, throughout the USA, only at Gwynn's.
