

Everybody Lends A Hand

Many hands make light work, and it happens to be hands Birmingham United Church Women were working on when this picture was snapped at First Baptist church. Cutting the "hands of fellowship" which will be name tags at the organization's Missionary institute tomorrow are Mrs. Alvin

J. Lawrie, Mrs. Albert C. Childs, Mrs. Donald G. Tracy, chairman of the event, and Mrs. Edmund C. Leavenworth. They're from Embury Methodist, First Presbyterian, Franklin Community and St. James Episcopal churches, respectively.

Hands of Fellowship Symbolize UCW Theme

Hands of fellowship will symbolize the theme for the morning session of the Missionary Institute to be held tomorrow at the Congregational church of Birmingham. The hands are cut from red, white, yellow and black paper.

Sponsoring Birmingham United Church Women will pin the name tag hands on arriving guests, who will hear Mrs. Jesse Jai McNeil, a prominent Negro church woman, lead a discussion on "Christ, the Church, and Race."

After the 10 a.m. session and noon luncheon, Mrs. Noel Brannon of Ann Arbor, will be featured minister of Tabernacle Baptist church of Detroit, is vice president and chairman of Christian social relations for Michigan UCW. She holds degrees from Fisk and Howard universities, and has done graduate work at Duke and Columbia. She holds membership on national committees of both United Church Women and the National Council of Churches. She is a member of the World Council of Churches commission on "the laity and the renewal of the church."

Mrs. Ruth Jackson, a Bible instructor of the staff of the Detroit church, will assist Mrs. McNeil.

MRS. BRANNON and her husband spent five years at Inland sea in Japan as missionaries from the American Baptist Foreign Mis-ion board. Study books on both UCW themes for the year will be presented at the afternoon session by Mrs. Wilbur Sears, and visual aids to the study will be shown. Mrs. Robert West will outline children's books available on each theme. Mrs. John Root, wife of the minister of St. Andrew's Lutheran church, will give the opening meditation. Mrs. Robert Stevenson is chairman of the committee of women from Birmingham Congregational church who will serve luncheon. BESIDES THOSE pictured, others working on arrangements are Mrs. J. H. Zick, St. Andrew's Lutheran; Mrs. Charles Davison, St. James Episcopal; Mrs. Ray Johnson, First Baptist; Mrs. Milton Taup, Birmingham Congregational, and Mrs. Carl Binkle, First Methodist.

To Hear Talk

The Women's mission society of First Baptist church meets next Thursday in the church parlors. President Mrs. Albert Fawley will preside at the 11:30 a.m. business meeting.

The Miriam circle will serve lunch at 12:45 p.m., under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Goldbury.

Miss Mary Murray, a home missionary for Michigan Baptists, will speak on the afternoon theme, "The Overflowing Cup."

Mrs. Charles Holtz will lead devotions, and a skit will commemorate the 25th anniversary of the love gift offering.

Dr. Harris to Show 'Homeland of Jesus' At Family Night

Sunday at 5 p.m. the Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris presents "The Homeland of Jesus" through pictures and spoken word at family night at First Presbyterian church.

The presentation marks the first of a series of Bible centered studies to follow this fall and winter. A care group is provided for children ages two through four. A supper, for which reservations are needed, follows at 6 p.m.

Book Discussions

An organizational meeting for a Holy Name parish book discussion group will be held Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in St. Anne's hall. To be patterned after the Great Books study groups, the group will study mainly Catholic books, discussing them at meetings every other Wednesday.

Time to join!

Here's your once-a-year opportunity to get Blue Cross • Blue Shield protection without enrolling in a group

Now, for a two-week period—September 16 to 30—those who are not eligible to join Michigan Blue Cross • Blue Shield through a group can join through this special non-group plan.

No red tape . . . no physical examination needed. The only requirement is that you be a Michigan resident under 65 years of age.

If you are married, Blue Cross • Blue Shield coverage will protect your entire family . . . if you are single, you will be covered individually.

And remember . . . the non-group plan provides many of the broad benefits usually available only under group coverage. They include, after six months' membership, the same new out-patient benefits just made available to Group Members.

But you must act now. This special non-group offer cannot be repeated for at least another year. Clip and mail the attached coupon . . . no later than September 30 . . . and we'll send you complete information on rates and benefits.

MICHIGAN BLUE CROSS • BLUE SHIELD
441 E. Jefferson Ave., Detroit 26

I am interested in the non-group Blue Cross • Blue Shield enrollment plan. Send me a full list of benefits and an application blank for membership. I understand I am under no obligation and that no one will telephone or call on me.
