Cranbrook Social Briefs

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Gach of Spring River drive, had as guests recently, Mrs. Gach's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bohring, from Saginaw.

Donald Sefcik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sefcik of Westbrook parkway, will be returning to school, after a series of operations. Donald will attend Southfield High.

A dessert and bridge party was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Harris of Southgate drive. The ladies who participated were Mrs. Carl Bartholomew, Jr., Mrs. Gay Smith, Mrs. John Rice, Mrs. Donald Moses, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, Mrs. Richard Stevely, Mrs. Wm. Persak and Mrs. Robert Dearth.

Charles J. Coe of Southgate drive, spent the past week in Los Angeles, Calif., on business. He expects to continue on to Portland, Oregon and New York. He had to be away for the Coes' seventh anniversary which was Sunday.

This week the Coes held a dinner party for eight. Four generations were represented. There was Mrs. Coe's grandmother, Mrs. Lottie Krause, and her mother, Mrs. C. H. Pitt, with daughter Pamela. Pamela spent the weekend with the Coes. An uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Krause, from Riverview, also were guests.

Explorers Show Colored Slides of Expedition

LATHRUP—Explorers of post L.C.-1 held a reception Sunday from 2 to 9 p.m. for the members of their families. Ever since their return from the "Great Algonquin park expedition" the last week in August, the boys have been planning a get-together to view pictures taken on the trip.

When a color slide appeared on the screen of a couple of sleepy explorers curled up on a collapsed tent, the projectionist remarked, "Someone cut the tent ropes." Far back in the audience a voice well recognized cried out, "I did not, I just untied them!" Therein a mystery was solved.

IN SPITE OF a dunking the movie camera took in Lake Opeconee when Chuck and Al Herr tipped it canoe. It continued to work valiantly until the group was on their way home.

Serving on the reception committee were Bill Mueller, Leo Mueller, Al Herr, Jeff Zatell, Don Harshman, Gene Gourley, Bob Ewart, and Darryl Pfister.

Lathrup Juniors Roll 'em
Tom Clark, president of Lathrup junior bowling league, gives Carl Graveline, league secretary, the honor of rolling the first ball of the year as the junior league held its first meeting last Saturday in Berkeley.

Canterbury Gardens Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Russette, Jr. of Red Leaf lane spent a weekend at Mullett lake, near Chey-bogyan, where they were guests at a cottage owned by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Turner.

Enjoying the outdoor activities and barbecues was son, Mark Jay, 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Riteour of Red Leaf lane just returned from several days at a cottage near East Tawas, Mich. Michael, accompanied his mother and dad.

Guests of the Paul Dawsons of Red Leaf lane were Mrs. Dawson's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Billings of Torrance, Calif., and children Paul, Allan and Jackie.

A portion of their two-week stay was spent at the Dawson cottage at Port Elgin, Can.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matz and children, Barbara and John, of Spring Arbor, recently returned from a two-week visit to Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and New York.

Lathrup Social Briefs

Mrs. Roger Leu, the former Graye Herr, returned to Central Michigan college Sunday evening, where she will begin her junior year. At the same time Roger left for Fort Leonard Wood for an extended visit.

The Daughters of the American Revolution have been honoring the Constitution this month. Roy Barnes, first vice-regent, addressed the first fall meeting of the Three Flags chapter on the importance of the celebration.

Mrs. Jerald Stone was guest of honor at a luncheon Monday given by Mrs. Harry Stonkoff and Mrs. Samuel Oaks. The entire house was decorated with a familiar long legged bird, and the luncheon table was centered by a huge bird. Lathrup guests were Mrs. Benjamin Poppy and Mrs. William Kosina.

October 3, at 12:30, a luncheon and hat show will be given by the ladies of Circle 3, of the Community Congregational church.

Chairman Mrs. J. H. Becker will be hostess. Models will be Mrs. Elmer Craig, Mrs. Robert Steger, Mrs. Gene Peron, Mrs. Elmer Shaver, Mrs. Charles Bihler, Mrs. Ben Butts, Mrs. E. Lee Parker and Mrs. H. S. Froelich. In charge of the hat show is Mrs. Thomas H. Myers.

Following the hat show will be a card party. Anyone wanting tickets may contact the chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank York of Wilshire spent several days at Grayling, where York was able to get in some trout fishing. Son Lyman, 10, accompanied his mother and dad.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tully of Dolores street drove down to Corpus Christi, Tex., last weekend to visit Tully's mother and brother Frank Tully.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walter of Dolores street spent a week combining business and pleasure in Los Angeles, Calif. The Walters flew down and back, and while there, visited the Sequoia national park, as well as King's canyon and other places of interest.

An interesting aspect of their trip was a visit to the Warner Bros. studio where they saw the filming of "Cheyenne".

Spending a relaxing weekend at Lakeport, near Port Huron, were Mrs. Cameron Beck, Mrs. Vaughn Foglio and Mrs. Wm. Commons. The ladies took along a trailer stocked with just about every bit of camping equipment available.

They had a tent, canopy and table set up and cooked their meals over an open fire. Future plans are being made for another outing.

Ten young teenagers of Lathrup have formed a new club known as the "Bobby Soxers". All the girls are between the ages of 11 and 13 and attend St. Michael's school. They plan to meet every Saturday and join in such activities as horseback riding, football games and shows.

The first meeting was held at Norma Giordano's home on Cambridge. Other members are Diane Frechette, Carol Russell, Sally Hoener, Sharon Malover and Kathy Osborne, who is president.

Also, Sharon Phillips, Ann Tuynman, Carol Yale, secretary-treasurer and Marcyn Wright.

Guest Entertained By Mrs. Barrett

CAMBRIDGE—A recent weekend guest of Mrs. Frances Barrett of Spring Arbor drive, was Miss Jane Higgins of Adrian, Mrs. Barrett's cousin. Miss Higgins is a teacher at a school in Adrian.

Miss Higgins was entertained at dinner for six, given by Mrs. Barrett. They also attended one of the productions at the Music Circle.

Brushes Attend SAE Convention

CAMBRIDGE—Mr. and Mrs. George Brush of Shagbark, recently returned from a three-day trip to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they stayed at Greenbrier and attended the SAE convention.

Going down on the train, they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Appiquist of Magnolia.
