

MRS. JACK E. WHITE

White-Buckingham Vows Said in Christ Church

Judith Ann Buckingham and Jack Ernest White exchanged rings and vows Friday in Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Bert White, brother of the groom, assisted the Rev. William Norvel at the candlelight ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Buckingham and Mrs. William A. Buckingham of Berkeley and Mr. and Mrs. Clement White of Orchard Lake. Judith wore a full-length Italian silk gown with a chapel train. The fitted bodice was accented with an insert of Alencon lace. A pleated silk band held in place her illusion fingertip veil. Two small orchids adorned a white prayerbook.

MRS. H. Stanley Ford, Jr., was her sister's matron of honor in an amber satin waltz-length princess style gown. In her hair was a band of ivy adorned with rust mums. Matching satin pumps and white kid gloves completed the outfit. She carried a spray of rust shaded mums and golden rose buds touched with a few sprigs of wheat. Bridesmaids were Emilie G. da-

Rosa and Patti-jean Smith. Their ensembles were the same as the honor attendant's and they carried only rust shaded mums. Best man was H. Stanley Ford, Jr., and ushers were Norman White and William Castile.

THE BRIDES' mother wore dusty blue satin sheath with three-quarter length sleeves and a scoop neckline. She had a corsage of white rubrum lilies pinned to her purse. Jack's mother wore orchid crepe with a lace bodice. Her corsage was shaded lilies. After a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., the couple will make their home on Party street in Birmingham.

MRS. JAMES C. NEWMAN

Nancy H. Splawn, James Newman Married in Texas

Nancy Helen Splawn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan M. Splawn, of Dallas, Texas, formerly of Birmingham, was married to James C. Newman last Saturday. The 11 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harry W. Pallett at Zion Episcopal church, Oconomowoc, Wis.

Barbara Splawn was maid of honor for her sister. Best man was Donald M. Goldsmith of Norwich, Birmingham.

MR. NEWMAN is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Newman, 6880 East Dartmoor road, Birmingham.

The bride graduated from Kemper Hall, Kenosha, Wis., and attended the University of Michigan.

After September 1, the newlyweds will live in Ann Arbor where Mr. Newman will resume his studies at the University of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Skrubb Honeymoon in Europe

Patricia Ann Jacobs became the bride of George Nils Skrubb August 24 at Grace Episcopal church in Traverse City. The Rev. Francis J. Foley performed the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Patricia is the daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Alvin Richard Jacobs of Traverse City. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nils Skrubb of Yosemite, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE CHOSE a ballerina length gown of tissue taffeta featuring a lace collar, yoke and long sleeves. A pill box headpiece of Alencon lace secured her full waist length veil of imported silk illusion.

Mrs. Helen Ricarta Jacobs, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a ballerina gown of blue chantilly lace. A blue garden hat and colonial corsage of white roses completed her outfit.

CHARLES ZETEK attended the groom as best man and John Rheinstein and Nolan R. Heiden seated the guests. Mother of the bride chose a dress of blue peau de soie in princess style and finished with tiny bows at the back. Mrs. Skrubb chose a rose lace dress with matching accessories.

A RECEPTION was in the garden of the Jacobs home on Peninsula drive. Immediately following, the couple drove to Wayne-Major Airport, where they embarked Sunday noon for Paris, France, where they will begin a honeymoon tour of central and southern Europe.
