

Nancy Judd Celebrates Her 12th Birthday in Switzerland

Possibly a real-life princess has never spent a more celebrated 12th birthday than did Nancy Judd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Judd of Glengary road, when she had a whipped cream birthday cake served to her by the manager of the hotel in Lucerne, Switzerland, for breakfast and a birthday cake at the hotel in Zurich, Switzerland, in the evening.

All of this took place when her birthday fell during the family's two-month trip to Europe. Nancy, her mother and father and 10-year-old sister Susan flew from New York to Paris where they rented a car and chauffeur for their tour of 5,000 miles. They visited France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Holland and England.

The family returned last Friday on the SS Liberte.

The Cronin family, father Walter J., mother and children Patrick, Michael and Jody of Half Moon have arrived home from a 10-day motor trip to Montreal, Quebec and Toronto.

One of the most interesting points of the trip to them was viewing the building of the St. Lawrence seaway.

They visited St. Ann de Beaupre, Niagara Falls and the children intrigued with their visit to Santa Claus land near Lake Placid, at the foot of White Face mountain. Here the five reindeer walk along the streets.

They also visited the baseball hall of fame in Cooperstown, N. Y., and an authentic Indian village nearby.

Several Bloomfield Village boys and girl returned Aug. 30 from the Chet Sampson annual western tour. They are Bob Brookman of Broadway boulevard, George Carlson, Cranbrook road, Gregg Whitbeck, Cranbrook road, Jan Lynch, Lucy McBrien and Joan Marsh.

The 55 boys and 17 girls traveled in 11 station wagons, covering 14 states, 8,000 miles, visiting nine state parks and spending three days in Hollywood, Calif. Here they had lunch with Debbie Reynolds and also met Barbara Rush, Clint Walker and Ronald Reagan.

During the entire trip they camped out. In Hollywood was the only time they stayed indoors.

At Lady mountain in Zion national park, several of the boys and a few girls attempted the climb to her summit. The only girls to reach the top were Lucy McBrien and a girl from Dearborn. It was a six-hour climb.

the University of Arizona as a freshman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood of Glengary and children Nancy, David, Chris and John have returned from spending the summer in a cabin in the woods at Lucerne, Mich., near Lewiston.

Nancy Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, celebrated her 14th birthday with an evening dinner at Oakland Hills country club for several of her friends.

Sue Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Miles of Glengary, will return this fall for her senior year at Michigan State university. She is an English major and a Kappa Delta and is president of the Kappa Delta house.

Brother Michael Miles will enter Birmingham high this fall from Derby Junior high. He and two other boys enjoyed a canoe trip down the Au Sable river this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manhart moved to 2840 Bradley boulevard in February, but haven't managed to settle down in their new environment until now. Immediately after moving here from South Bend they left for Florida where they spent a month and then returned to prepare for the South Bend wedding of their daughter Annetta Carol June 29. They remained in South Bend until two weeks ago when they came to Bloomfield Village for good.

For the past two weeks, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Platt, have been their house-guests. They left Monday for Pittsburgh where he is with U. S. Steel until April when he goes into the U. S. Air Force.

Manhart is director of sales for Bendix Aviation.

Their 15-year-old daughter, Mary Kay, will enter Birmingham high this week.

Bloomfield Village welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Benedict of 338 N. Glengary who moved here from Ridgewood, N. J. They have four children, Jay, 11, Bruce, 8, Scott, 3, and Stephen, 2 months.

Benedict is assistant controller of Plymouth division of Chrysler Corp. He is also on the finance planning council of the American Management association and gives talks throughout the country.

He enjoys golf and she oil paints and writes. She was a television staff script writer in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Uhas of N. Glengary and children Diane and Dale are back from a two-week stay at a cottage near Gaylord on Lake Osego.

With them were Mrs. William B. Van Dyke of Pilgrim in Birmingham and Rickey Buen of Cranbrook road and Jeanne Busch of S. Glengary.
