

Mr. and Mrs. Somers Leave for Washington

FOXCROFT—St. Paul's Episcopal church in Detroit was the scene of the ceremony which united in marriage Joan Carol Sparks and David Paul Somers at 1 o'clock Saturday. The Rev. Franz Ollerman officiated.

The bride chose a full length gown of Italian silk featuring a V-neckline, long sleeves and lace bodice. An orange blossom headband secured her waist-length veil of silk illusion. She carried stephanotis and white orchids.

JOAN is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sparks of Detroit and David is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Somers of Valley Forge.

Emily Sparks, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mildred Smith and Mrs. Roland Calhoun. They were gowned in blue satin ballgown length with short sleeves and V-necklines. They carried yellow carnations.

JAMES HUBBARD, JR., stood as best man. Ushers were John Sparks and Roland Calhoun. Mrs. Sparks chose a white lace dress over blue taffeta with white accessories. The groom's mother selected a rose silk dress with matching accessories. Both mothers pinned gardenias to their bags.

AFTER A RECEPTION at the Park Shelton hotel, the couple left for a honeymoon to Washington. The new Mrs. Somers changed to a black and white checked suit with white accessories to start her trip. Upon returning, they will make their home in Detroit.

For the trip Mary wore a charcoal gray suit with touches of white and a silvery gray maskart stole. She chose black patent accessories.

ON THEIR RETURN Sept. 8, they will make their home in white and a silvery gray maskart stole. She chose black patent accessories.

Arbor where the groom will continue his studies as a junior at the University of Michigan, school of medicine.
