

MRS. JAMES H. KING, JR.

Louisa S. Roberts Married in Youngstown

Louisa Seymour Roberts and James Herman King, Jr., exchanged vows and rings Saturday at the First Unitarian church in Youngstown, Ohio. The Rev. J. Frank Schulman performed the ceremony in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Blaine Roberts, Jr. of Lakeshire, Birmingham. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Herman King, of Hubbard, Ohio.

THE BRIDE chose a ballerina length gown fashioned of lace and silk featuring a sweetheart neckline, lace bodice and sleeves. A cap of lace and pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A cascade of white roses and stephanotis completed the bridal picture.

Mary Roberts was maid of honor and Margaret Roberts was bridesmaid. Both sisters of the bride. They were dressed in white, full ballerina length gowns with scoop necklines, cap sleeves and fitted bodices. They carried carnations.

HALE WERNER stood as best man. Ushers were Iren McMahon and David Kubow.

Mrs. Roberts selected a blue lace dress with navy and white accessories. The groom's mother chose a rose lace dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had white carnations.

The new Mrs. King changed to a tweed dress with black accessories for her honeymoon to Pennsylvania.

To the Man Postponing a Dream!

The man you see above—watching a beautiful new 1957 Cadillac as it takes the sweep of the boulevard—is representative of a goodly number of American motorists.

He is a gentleman who would like to own a Cadillac car—but who feels the time is not quite propitious for him to do so.

Well, we have some sound advice for this gentleman, and for those like him, and it is this: Come in, sir, and see for yourself! For you will find an amazing and fortunate combination of circumstances awaiting you that may make further delay unnecessary.

First of all, you will find that today's Cadillac car is exceptionally practical.

In fact, its relatively modest cost, its wonderful efficiency of operation, its great dependability and its marvelous resale value mark it unmistakably as one of motordom's soundest investments.

And then you will discover that your dealer is prepared to give you a most generous allowance on your present car. In fact, the transition to Cadillac is easier today than it has been in many, many years.

And, as if this were not sufficient in itself, your dealer can assure you of prompt delivery on your favorite model.

In short, if you are the man who has been postponing his dream of a Cadillac, then your "golden moment" has arrived!

You should visit your dealer today—take the wheel for yourself—experience the marvels of Fleetwood luxury—and listen to the facts about Cadillac practicality.

He'll be waiting to welcome you—soon!
