MRS. DAVID H. ROBINSON

Green Taffeta Frocks Worn by Attendants

WOODCREEK FARMS—Bridal attendants in green taffeta ascended the aisle before Inez Joy Motzkus for her marriage to David Howard Robinson at 7 o'clock Saturday in the Outer Drive Faith Evangelical Lutheran church of Detroit. The Rev. Carl Kemp officiated at the double-ring candlelight rites.

Inez wore a crown of silk organza over white taffeta with a sabrina neckline of alencon lace studded with seed pearls, the fitted bodice with dropped waist was accented in matching lace.

Gail Brummel was maid of honor and her gown was emerald green taffeta with mint green accents. Her circular veil spattered with pearls was caught to a heart-shaped cap. Bridesmaids were Ellen Robinson, twin sister of the groom, Dee Braamse, Gail White and Jay Ann Keller as flower girl.

THEY WORE mint green taffeta gowns with emerald green accents and bouquets of mums, green carnations and ivy. The flower girl wore a light green dress with pink rose petals.

Clement Nicoloff stood as best man. Ushers were Nick Nicoloff, Clark McKehey and Richard Coop-moon to northern Michigan. The new Mrs. Robinson changed to a brown sheath silk dress with a stripped bolera jacket to start her trip. They will reside in Kalamazoo.

What's in a Salad?

Depending on what part of the world you happen to be in at the time, you're apt to find anything from lettuce to Yak Liyers mixed up in the concoctions people call salads.

But if you're like most people here in good old salad-eating suburbia you probably favor the old standards, Cold Crisp lettuce. Ripe juicy flavorful tomatoes, firm sweet onions, cucumbers—that are crisp and delicious, fresh garlic, salt, black pepper with all its original zip, vinegar and oil. (Our apologies if we haven't mentioned your favorite, but we don't have that much space.)

This is the sort of salad makings you'll find at Peabody's Market where the quality and condition of the produce we sell is the major factor in its selection when we buy it.

We're salad fans ourselves so perhaps we'll see you at our produce counter soon... that's at Peabody's.
