Van Wagener-Lundberg United at Base Chapel

Main Base Chapel at Langley air force base in Virginia was the scene August 28 for the marriage of Ann Elizabeth Lundberg to Lt. Benjamin Watson Van Wagener. Chaplain John P. Thomas performed the 2 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Omos Overton Durrst, assistant dean of men at William and Mary college.

ANN is the daughter of Mrs. John Leonard Lundberg of Pompano Beach, Fla., formerly of Birmingham, and the late Dr. Lundberg. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Benjamin W. Van Wagener of Ohio and the late Mr. Van Wagener.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of embroidered net over silk taffeta featuring a square neckline and cap sleeves. The bouffant skirt was designed with lace medallions.

A CROWN OF PEARLS set in a floral design secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses. Pearls worn by the bride were presented by her brother, Lawrence A. Lundberg, serving with U. S. air force overseas.

Betty Baker of Birmingham served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Pat Quinn, Cynthia Kelly, Mrs. Leonard Cooley and Karen Cooley as flower girl.

ATTENDANTS WERE gowned in green taffeta with green accessories and carried bouquets of mums.

Leonard P. Cooley stood as best man. Ushers were Richard Allor, Robert Osborne and Gary Kahn.

Mrs. Saylor chose a blue sheath dress with matching accessories and the groom's mother selected a blue lace sheath with matching accessories. Both mothers had orchids.

IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING the reception at Devoes Gables, the couple left for northern Michigan.

The new Mrs. Cooley changed to an aqua tweed suit with black accessories to start her trip.

Upon returning, they will reside in East Lansing.
