

MRS. PETER N. BAKALIS

Alice Harabedian Wed To Peter N. Bakalis

Alice Ann Harabedian and Peter N. Bakalis pledged their nuptial vows Sunday in a 4 o'clock ceremony at Assumption Greek Orthodox church.

The Rev. John Kamekakis solemnized the double-ring rite in the presence of 400 guests.

The bride chose a gown fashioned of ivory Italian-peau de soie with tiny cap sleeves, scooped neckline and side panels of alencon lace. A crown of pearls and sequins secured her double-tier fingertip veil of silk illusion. A prayer book affect with apophysis and white orchid with tivy leaves completed the bridal picture.

MABLE HARABEDIAN was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Mullin, Gwen Steels, Neva Hagopian and Sophie Theodosiou. Attendant's gowns were ballerina length of beige lace and headresses matching with short veils. They carried cascades of yellow mums.

Mei Yanulis was best man. Ushers were William Vasilidis, George Harabedian, Richard Magasin, Ted Andrews, Constantine Bakalis.

RING-BEARER was Michael

Harabedian. The groom wore a pink lace cocktail length gown with matching accessories. Mrs. Bakalis chose a beige lace gown accented with clusters of seed pearls.

Immediately following the ceremony at the Whittier hotel, the couple left for their honeymoon to the New England states.

THE NEW Mrs. Bakalis chose a beige dress with matching jacket and accessories to start her trip. Upon returning, the couple will reside in Detroit.

John Kinsey Plans Flight To Belgium; to Tour Europe

John Kinsey of Hylane drive is looking forward to the month of September in Europe. He plans to leave by way of the Sabena airlines soon after Labor day. By choosing this route to Belgium, he will be able to experience his first helicopter ride from the Belgium airport to Antwerp, Belgium.

While in Europe, his plans include visits to England, France, Switzerland and Germany. A machine fair in Hanover will highlight his German visit.

Seventeen members of the Oaage Garden club, branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association, gathered for a board meeting at the Tisbury road home of Mrs. David DeWitt recently.

A picnic luncheon beside the DeWitt's swimming pool followed the meeting. Despite the cool afternoon, two brave souls went swimming while the others looked on.

The Barnet Cole of Butternut Hill and their friends, the James Rivers of Indianapolis, spent 10 days vacationing on an island owned by Mrs. Cole's parents, the M. F. Borna. The picturesque island is situated in Big Basswood lake, Canada, located 60 miles east of the Soo. The Borna have named their island "Sunset Pointe."

The Douglas Clark of Tisbury motored to Meriden, Conn., for a two-week vacation recently. They visited Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. A. L. O'Brien, during their stay.

'Crystal Lake' was this year's vacation destination for the Edward Fishers of Butternut Hill. They enjoyed two weeks of cottage life with their two daughters, Pat and Jeanne.

Two weeks at the Dela Wana Inn at Georgian Bay proved to be a perfect vacation for the Walter Cornelius family of Houshe Circle. Their days were spent swimming and boating with their little daughter, Lisa Ann.

The David DeWitt of Tisbury motored to Toronto, Can., where they visited relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Tress, for a few days last week.

They joined the George Joneses of Dowling road at Lake Windermere, Can., for the Labor day weekend.

The C. Russell Beams are newcomers to Whitmore road. Their move was from Sylvan Lake. Beam is with General Motors Truck in Pontiac.

They have a daughter, Karen, who will be leaving Sept. 15 for Alma college. Karen is taking elementary education and will be in her freshman year. The family's interests center around music and square dancing. They belong to the Allemercres club.

New residents to Sunnyhill drive are the Fred Jezierski family of Clawson. Jezierski is a plasterer with Ralph Baker Plastering Contractors in Troy.

They are active in the Christian chapel in Oak Park. Mrs. Jezierski is the pianist and is also interested in the Mission auxiliary, while Jezierski is the church's choir director.

The Jezierskis and their 2-year-old son, Jeffrey, have just returned after spending two weeks at a cottage at Harrisville, Mich., on
