Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross And Sister See Washington

Washington, D. C., was the vacation spot this past week for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, 1554 Witherbee, and Ross sister, Mary Ann Stone of Birmingham.

They took advantage of the many tours in that city. Former Detroit residents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dibert, entertained the Ross' in their home, in Washington for dinner.

Mr. Robert Distler and Mrs. John Ward, Jr.
One of the original Trojans Manonites moved this week to Westport, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burch and their 6-month-old daughter, Kathy, formerly of Witherbee road, have left due to Burch's promotion and transfer to the home office of Union Carbide and Carbon Corp. in New York City.
Mrs. Burch's bridge group honored her at a farewell gathering and presented her with a gift. The group included Mrs. Robert the chairman, Mrs. Charles Penninger. The women discussed and made plans for their forthcoming year.

After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served by the cohostesses, Mrs. Robert Gorman and Mrs. Robert Distler, while the women talked over their summer holidays.

A week's vacation was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman of Brookline road at the Belvedere gold club in Charlevoix on Lake Charlevoix. While there, the Gorman's enjoyed the rest and nearness of the lake and golf course. They attended a dance one evening for the group staying at the club.

Before returning home, they stopped to see the Otsego ski club at Hidden Valley and were amazed at its beautiful scenery.
Mrs. Gorman, after their return, motored to a motel near Toledo with her children, Nancy and Mike, to meet her mother, Mrs. Margaret Bogzins, and sister, Mrs. Richard Pingaok and daughter Susie, who came in from Cleveland as a treat for all the children.

Just returned from a visit in Springfield, Ohio, are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte and children Tommy and Nancy of Witherbee road. With them was the children's maternal grandmother Mrs. Kenneth Brock.

While in Springfield, they were the honored guests at a family dinner. The children enjoyed seeing a puppet show.
A surprise birthday party was enjoyed by Robert Distler, 881 Brookline, Aug. 23.
Those helping Distler celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Priesner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garna, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker and Mr. and Mrs. James Adams.

The Leo Cases, with their children, Roger, Marcella, and Beth, returned this week from a week's vacation at a cottage on Little Traverse bay near Petokeye.
After enjoying the many sights of the big city, they motored to Allendale, N. J., to visit Mrs. Doering's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Munson. They also made a stop in Philadelphia, Pa. for some more sight-seeing before returning home to Michigan.

A trip to New York was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Doering, 1384 Witherbee, and their daughter Diana.
