

Telegraph-Lincoln Crash Injures One

BLOOMFIELD — Three cars were involved in a chain collision at 8:25 p.m. Sunday on Telegraph road at Lincoln. Leonard Wojciak, 950 Neckel, Dearborn, was injured. Wojciak and Totorzak were stopped for traffic, according to township police reports. A car driven by Robert Kratochvil, 18250 Winston, Detroit, hit Totorzak's car, was treated at Beaumont hospital, Royal Oak, for hip and knee injuries.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY GOING TO PRESS NOW!

Now is the time to change or add listings
 Take a good look at the old directory. Are your listings just as you want them? Perhaps you'd like to list the names of others in your household who receive calls frequently. Or have your name listed with your business telephone number. Or provide a special listing for business "Night, Sunday and Holiday" calls. There's still time to do it—and you'll enjoy greater telephone convenience at very little cost.

The Yellow Pages are closing, too!
 If you're a businessman, remember that nine out of ten people use "The Yellow Pages to find 'where to buy.'" So be sure you're properly represented in the places they'll look when they're ready to buy your goods or services. If you haven't already arranged for your advertising in the Yellow Pages, we'll be glad to help you choose a size, design and message that fits your business.

HENRY O. WAGNER

Pay Tribute To 41-Year Employee

Henry O. Wagner, 880 Ridge-dale avenue, Birmingham, was honored last week by the General Electric company at a dinner in the Starlight room of Devon Gables. Guests, some from as far as Rome, Ga., paid tribute to Wagner for his 41 years of service as a sales engineer in the company's apparatus sales division. Born in Dyersburg, Ky., in 1892, Wagner graduated from the University of Kentucky with a bachelor of engineering degree in 1915. Wagner and his wife, Sina, have two children, Richard, who is employed at Chrysler Missile and their daughter, Mrs. Jean Wilkens, who resides in Port Huron.

WHY?

Does Red Hair Mean Bad Tempers?

Because Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Christ in a moment of bad temper, had red hair and beard, the characteristics of quick temper, deceit and bad disposition have thoughtlessly been ascribed to persons with red hair, since the death of Christ.

A Gaelic proverb has it, "A red-haired, black-eyed woman; a dun, fiery-eyed dog; a black-haired, red bearded man—the three unlikeliest to meet." Perhaps too, redheads become ill-natured from being called "Red" all their lives. Copyright 1957, John Emery Ent.
