

Keith Dearborn To Be Organist At B'ham Church

Organist at St. Mark's Methodist church, Detroit, for the past few years, Keith Dearborn has been called to be organist and choir director at the Congregational Church of Birmingham, beginning Oct. 1. He succeeds A. Shanley Rosso, who served as organist and choir director for the past three years. Mr. Rosso has moved to Lapeer, Mich.

Mr. Dearborn is a graduate of the Westminster choir school of Princeton, New Jersey. He will direct both the youth and adult choirs.

Nativity Church Acquires Property

The acquisition of property at 14 Mile road and Forest lane has been announced by the newly formed Nativity Episcopal church. The congregation plans to hold its first services in the ranch style residence on the property Sunday, Sept. 15. The five-acre lot is near Valley Woods school.

Rev. Barton Lloyd currently conducts Sunday services for the mission of Christ Church Cranbrook at Beverly school at 11:15 a.m.

Congregational Sunday School Takes Over House

As part of an expansion program over a four or five year period, the Congregational church of Birmingham has rented a house at 385 Ferndale which will be used, beginning Sunday, for babies and two year old children.

A walk connecting the house with the church has been built, and the house is being prepared for use as a Sunday nursery to relieve the crowded conditions within the church proper. Over 500 children are enrolled in the church's Sunday school which will begin on the fall schedule of two sessions at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday.

Morning services will also change from one to two as of that date, and at the same hours, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

St. Bede's Priest Honored
