

Of Ministers and Men

Birmingham ministers gather for lunch with laymen in their churches every other Friday since the recent organization of the Birmingham (churchmen's) Luncheon Fellowship. Shown arriving at the Community House for luncheon on a recent Friday were (from left) the Rev. Kenneth Gass and Donald T. Stanton, a member of St. James Episcopal church where Mr. Gass is rector; Rev. Dr. Robert Macoskey and Robert Markor, a member of First Baptist church, where Dr. Macoskey is assistant pastor. Mr. Gass and Dr. Macoskey inaugurated the BCLF.

Peter C. Kalinke To Speak to Women At Kirk in Hills

Kirk in the Hills Women's association will hear Peter C. Kalinke, author of "Communism vs. Christianity" when the group holds its regular meeting Tuesday at the church, 1740 W. Long Lake road, Bloomfield township.

Reservations for the noon luncheon and meeting are being taken by Mrs. Archie McCall, 7190 Parkhurst, Birmingham.

Kalinke, of 958 Park, Birmingham, formerly worked with refugees from Iron Curtain nations now escaped to Germany. A former German soldier himself, Kalinke spent several years as a prisoner of the Russians during and after World War II.

1st Methodist Women's Group To Sell Rummage

Methodist men are hanging on to their hats as their wives clean closets and collect items in preparation for the annual spring rummage sale at First Methodist church.

The sale will be next Thursday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. in fellowship hall of the church, W. Maple at Pleasant streets. Sale is sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Cosponsors Mrs. Cindy and Mrs. Herbert Lueger and their many workers have been busy for weeks collecting clothing, dishes, furniture, toys and books for the event. Rummage will be received at the church from 9 to 5 Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday preceding the sale.

Cancer Control Sunday This Week

The churches of the Birmingham area will observe Cancer Control Sunday, April 11 and Cancer Control Sabbath on Saturday, April 12. Spiritual leaders have been asked to offer prayers for divine guidance in the 1954 cancer crusade launched April 1.

The American Cancer society is a cruel disease.

Congregationalists Plan Family Night, Men's Dinner Meet

Two dinner meetings are slated soon at the Congregational church of Birmingham. Tonight the Men's fellowship will hear the Rev. Donald Schroeder, family life director of the Detroit Council of Churches, at their monthly dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Next Thursday Mrs. Robert Froese will give a talk and show slides of a recent trip to the Holy Land with her minister husband. The event will be the family night potluck supper at 6:15 p.m. at the church.

Films on India Set For Family Night

North Congregational church will hold its church night family dinner Wednesday at the church, Northmead highway and Lusher road, at 6:45 p.m. in Fellowship hall. Dr. Harold Paul Sloan, Jr., minister of Drayton Avenue Presbyterian church, will be speaker. His talk, "Empty Stomach," accompanied by pictures taken in India, will be based on his six weeks in India in 1957 conducting a special preaching mission for the Church of South India.

Nursery care will be provided for infants; movies and entertainment for children.

Embury Methodist Women Study Japan

A study of Japan is underway under sponsorship of the Women's society of Embury Methodist church, 14 Mile at Croft, Birmingham.

Covering the book, "Cross and Crisis in Japan," Mrs. Wilton Norris, district secretary of supply, conducts the four-session open study.

Three more classes will meet at the church from 1:30 to 3 p.m. April 16, 23 and 30. A nursery is provided.

Notices of church group meetings and special services must be submitted in writing by 4 p.m. on Thursday before publication date.
