

Plenty To Talk About

There's plenty to talk about when Collegiate Sorosis alums get together these days. Discussing the group's new project at the Fox and Hounds last week are Mrs. Arthur N. Hill. (left) national project chairman, and Mrs. George

B'ham Sorosis Alumnae of the collection of word the shelves of an open hatch. Aid Senior Citizens

The Birmingham Eccentric

SECTION $\mathbf{C}$

20-Year Collection of Early American Furnishings

In Farmhouse Setting With Portico Entrance

By AILEEN STOCKER Staff Correspondent

WESTWOOD-Twenty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. James O. WESTWOOD—Twenty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. James O. an ecene of Evergreen road acquired an antique brass tray, on that was the beginning of a fascinating period of purchass that years are supported by the second of the second of only at Alm Arton, and monoy-ranging activities for section Muscoung many and monoy-ranging activities for section Muscoung many and monoy-ranging activities for section of genomiconous.

In the dependence of the Service of the study of producers of the study of th

Mrs. M. M. Burgess of Country Club drive. Bloomfield Hills, celebrated her birthday amiversary Saturday, marking the occasion with a small dinner party at the Detroit Athletic club.

The fete was doubly gay, what with the birthday data coinciding with the opening of DAC's Easter week floor show, starred by singer Doretta Morrow and presenting Andre Moons' charming puppet act.

Mrs. Burgess' guests were her son-in-law and daughter. The Thomas S. Torgersons; her brother-in-law and sister, the Alfred J. Mackseys; nephew Jim Macksey, and Judy Trumbull.

the Alfred J. Mackseys; nephew Jim Jackaesey, and only Trumbull.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Wells entertained Dr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Fisher, of Grosse Pointe, and the Lee B. Dur-hams—they all went directly to the dinner-dance-show after attending the welding reception at the DAC of Rob-ert Harris Durham, Jr., and his bride, the former Andrea Arbuthnot, of Ann Arbor.

ANOTHER sixsome whose Easter Eve included the same reception and the club's floor show gala were the H. Ross Macks, the Thomas L. Camps, and Mr. and Mrs., William (See Suburban SCENE, Page 2-C)

Engagement Announced At Party on Saturday

Her flance, who now makes his
Her flance, who now makes his home in Detroit, is the son of Mr. EINESTINE KAHN WINSTON ON the Anal Mrs. Michael I. Ruber, of Bus school, and is a member of Delta
Wall
University of Medigan and its law Theta Phi.

Letter Tells of Trip Through

Hobby Show Today

Country Club Takes Air of Summer Garden

'Bouquet of Fashions'

Modeling the latest in feminine attire at Forest Lake ountry club April 23 will be (from left) Mrs. William E. Francis, Mrs. Robert S. Swanson and Mrs. George Ather-iolt, Jr.

Alums Compile 'Handicapped Helps'

North Suburban Sigma Kappa sorority alumni met to assemble and address for mailing a directory entitled "Handicapped Helps". The booklet is compiled as a committee and address for munity service by the group under the charamashin of Mrs. Edward Cole (right). Most occur by the group under the will be mailed to local people in the medical charamashin of Mrs. Edward Cole (right). Most occur professions and will be born association for Handicapped children, Sigma Kappa alums including (from left)