Donna Boileau Wears Chantilly Lace Gown

A gown fashioned of chantilly lace and taffeta was worn by Donna Margo Boileau for her marriage to David Francis Hamil. Dr. Glen Harris performed the double-ring ceremony Tuesday in the presence of 200 guests.

MRS. DAVID HAMIL

Most Husbands Would Resent The Situation

Most husbands would resent having their wives criticize them in public—correcting their pronunciation and manner, and even interrupting their punch lines. William F. Keene not only tolerates but enjoys the situation during rehearsals of the Birmingham Village Players, forthcoming production of "The Great Sebastians," in which Bill plays the male lead and his wife, Betty, assists. Machine Tilton, the director.

"The Great Sebastians" will be presented by the Birmingham Vil-

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Boileau of Hamilton road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Hamil of Madison, Birmingham.

HER GOWN featured an apron of lace in the back and full length skirt. She wore a matching head dress with veiling of small rose petals and carried a bouquet of stephanotis and lily of the valley. Linda Boileau was her sister-in-law of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Hohmeyer and Ann Woodruff. They were dressed in white cyclot over blue taffeta. They carried pink carnations with pink roses.

Payson Chapman stood as best man. Seating the guests were William Hohmeyer, Byron Hestevola, and Walter Sturm.

MRS. BOILEAU chose for her daughter's wedding a brown chantilly lace over aqua taffeta with matching hat. Mother of the groom selected a blue silk sheath with small hat of pink flowers. Both mothers had pink roses.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the newlyweds left for a trip to Chicago.

Bill has acted in, directed and written a number of Players productions and Betty appears of stage frequently herself. The show provides an opportunity for combining their talents. Bill's stage wife is played by Mrs. Ralph M. Fox.

ANOTHER FAMILY team in the cast consists of Jean Martz, playing a Communist colonel and her son, Dick, as a corporal in the same army.

Others in the cast include Mrs. Warren Sumner, Norman K. Porter, Edward P. Walter, Walter Herrlich, Russell Richardson, G. Thordyke Dweilly, Richard Netty, Thomas C. Watts, Mrs. Howard Thomson, Mrs. Charles Nielsen, John Dundas, Robert Keiler, William Candier, Marc Parsons, Mrs. Clement Penrose, Arthur Holmes and Mrs. Richard Brown holding lines.

As comfortably rugged and casual as the boy himself! Your favorite young citizen will warmly applaud your choice of Habitant knotty pine with typical praise . . .

"It's slick and real cool!" Habitant furniture will keep pace with his moods. It has an easy restfulness that encourages quiet study yet is sturdily resistant to boisterous bull sessions. His Habitant will grow with him (the bunk quickly converts to good looking twin beds) and its unique charm will become richer with the years. You'll love it, too.

PLASTIC TOPS are standard on many Habitant pieces. Look just like knotty pine. Highly resistant to burns, stains, dents, scratches.
