Clarence Banwells Return from Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Banwell of Morning View Terrace returned Thursday from a three-week trip to California and Hawaii.

In Hawaii they were the guests of his sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rickett who make their residence there. In California they visited friends. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mauley who took them on a motor trip to San Francisco, Yosemite and Palm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Charles Crockett of Broadway boulevard and children, Penny and Tony, both pupils at Brookside, returned last week from four weeks at the Winter Colony at Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Fla.

An interesting side trip was taken to the new Seagrass at Key Biscayne. The above ground tank, three stories high, can be approached from different levels. It houses a large number of tropical fish.

Feeding time for the purpose is particularly fun to watch as a man hangs over the side of a make believe boat, calls them by name and they respond to get their food.

A diver feeds the small luminous fish and when he goes into the water with their food, they all light up.

Mrs. Roger K. Hanson of Yarmouth was hostess Monday to St. Mary's guild of St. Mary's Name church for their monthly meeting.

Following dessert, the ladies served cancer pads for the afternoon.

Fred Bleakley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bleakley of Overhill is a student at Hillsdale college and one of the pitchers on the college baseball team.

During his spring vacation he travelled with the team which played Moorehead, Ky., Eastern and Western Ky., Vanderbilt and Tennessee Tech. They won six and lost one.

Beverly Bleakley, their daughter, who is a student at U of M, spent her spring vacation at home with the family.

Travelling east for spring vacation were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brookman, son Bob and daughter Janet of Broadway. With them were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Purdy of Caro, Mich.

They visited relatives in Philadelphia and toured Princeton, N. J. and New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Walter of Broadway and daughter, Gail, a student at Albion college, spent two weeks during spring vacation at Lake Wales, Fla.

While there they saw the Passion Play which is given annually by the Black Hills, S. D., troupe during Lent.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Bay, or of Broadway entertained Saturday evening honoring the birthday of his mother, Mrs. Frederick Bayser of Detroit.

The party was a family dinner with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Bayser of Cleveland, Ohio, and her other son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bayser of Farmington, present.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Lanning and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hays, all of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Niekirk and children, Eric, David and Nancy of Tibury Place took a week's motor trip to Charlottesville, Williamsburg and Washington during spring vacation.
