Gilbert Lake Social Briefs

After a fast and exciting trip to the west coast, Mr. and Mrs. Don Harness and their children, Linda and Jay, returned to their home on Snookshoe Circle last week.

They flew to Phoenix where they were greeted by friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sarver of Troy. They remained in Phoenix just one day, then drove to the Grand Canyon, Boulder City, Las Vegas and Los Angeles.

In Hollywood they visited Disneyland, several TV shows and the movie studios before flying to El Paso, Texas to visit Mrs. Harness' brother and his family whom they hadn't seen for four years.

An exciting climax to the trip came in Juarez, Mexico where a bull broke loose in the arena during a bull fight causing a four-point animal to be killed.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Knoblock of Shadow Lane returned last week from Arizona after vacationing for three weeks in Scottsdale.

Their sons, Bob and Al, accompanied them. The Knoblocks' daughter, Barbara, flew from Cornell university to join the family and their son, Jack, and his wife of Birmingham joined them for a week before going to California.

More Arizona vacationers who returned last week were Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. McDonald of Timberlake road. They spent three weeks at the Flying V ranch with their children, Joan and Graham. House guests at the McDonald home last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graham of Bloomington, Ill. The McDonalds entertained in their home at a Sunday afternoon cocktail party.

Mr. and Mrs. David K. Falvey and their children, Deryse and Kirk, of Wilson road spent a recent week in Westfield, N. Y., visiting Falvey's family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mauck of E. Midway road and their daughters, Kathy and Karen, to New York during Easter vacation. The trip was planned especially for the children so there were many "firsts" including a train and plane ride. After "doing" New York, the Maucks took the girls to New Jersey to visit their grandparents at the seashore, then made a quick visit to Philadelphia before flying home.

Foxcroft Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shugart of W. Surrey returned after a week at Hillbrook Beach, Fla. just in time for the arrival of a grandson, Charles Killgore Shugart, on Easter day. He was born to the Shugarts' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shugart, Jr., of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Most popular time for Foxcrofts to arrive home from Florida vacations was last week. Among the many were Mr. and Mrs. George L. McGinnis of Sandy Lane. They visited friends in Alabama, had a gay time in New Orleans and went on to spend a month in Lake Worth.

Mr. W. T. Jones of Monticore court wintered in Redington Beach and Naples with her daughter and granddaughters, Mrs. Robert Nelson and Charlotte of Birmingham.

International Theme Used for WNEGA Party

WING LAKE — "Around the World with 60 People" was the theme of the WNEGA party given by the Wing Lake Shores branch of the WNEGA at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston of Fairman drive.

Members and their husbands, several dressed in costumes of foreign lands, were the guest for the annual husbands and wives night production.

Cochosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Amerson, also of Fairman drive.

A perpetual fountain graced the silver and pink dining table on the upper level of the Westons' home, where Mrs. Martin Pitts, club president, and Mrs. Douglas Buss presided at the crystal punch bowl.

THE BUFFET in the recreation room on the patio level was centered by a table arrangement of spring blooms and a large Japanese doll brought from Japan last year by Mr. and Mrs. Buss.

The tables were set for 60, each bearing floral arrangements and dolls from different countries.

Dr. Weston, well-known radio man, provided the highlight of the evening for the men by contacting people in Brazil, Ecuador and in this country. The group also enjoyed receiving best wishes from

Mr. and Mrs. Buss.

Accompanying them was Mrs. Livingston's mother, Mrs. Olive Parker of Highland Park.

Wing Lake Cubs Present Skits

WING LAKE — Cub scout troop B-6 of Wing Lake school had its March 25 meeting at the school. This month's national theme is "Keep America Beautiful." The skits were presented and seraphs and litter bags were shown that had been made by some of the area.

There was also a film on America shown.
