

Southfield Candidates

(Continued from Page 1-B)

the gradual alleviation of our problems.

CHRISTENSEN, a 30-year resident of the township, served on a previous charter commission. He was chairman of the Southfield Optimist club. A graduate of Hillsdale college, he is an insurance operator. He lives at 17500 Carroll Road. Christensen believes that incorporation as a city would help Southfield residents get better service, improve representation at the county level, and cut taxes in the long run.

Christensen

DOHANY, 36, is the fourth generation of Dobany to live in Southfield. His home is at 20527 Midway, and his three children attend Southfield schools. Dobany is a member of the township and works for Detroit Edison. He is a member of the present charter commission as well as a previous one, served two years as president of Southfield High School League, three years as manager of Southfield Little League, is a past president of Southfield Optimist club and a member of Brace and high school PTA. Dobany regards "yes" vote on the charter as of utmost importance, and says he would be honored to continue his service to the community.

EDWARDS is president of Edwards Brothers Carriage Inc., and lives at 22525 Rougemont drive with his wife and six children. He is director of the Southfield Taxpayers association and a member of Rougemont improvement association. Edwards believes that if Southfield becomes a city it can be efficiently operated on a tax base of 5 mills.

Edwards

GRADY, who is making his first political try, believes in city government for Southfield to secure the boundaries and prevent loss of tax revenue. He favors conservative government and low taxes. Grady attended the University of Cincinnati and was graduated from Ohio State university. He is sales supervisor for General Food Corp., married and father of one son. Grady lives at 21221 Sunny Pointe drive.

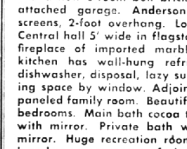

Grady

HARTIGAN, who lives at 17200 Carroll, is executive vice president of Canterbury Gardens Residents association. He favors conservative city government for Southfield with gradual increase in services as the financial strength of the community grows. Hartigan attended Western Michigan college, Wayne, and was graduated

Hartigan

HOLLYWOOD, a member of the township board, served on the present and a previous charter commission. He is president of the Southfield Rotary club and a director of Cambridge Village association. Hollywood and his wife live at 27500 Shogklay drive. He favors city government for efficiency, protection of boundaries and trees, the modest tax rate provided by a city charter. Hollywood works for Associated Discount, an auto financing firm.

Hollywood

JENKINS platform includes protection of the rural atmosphere in Southfield by "going slow" on expensive projects. Jenkins, 39, lives at 1438 NW Hampshire. He is a former for the Seattle PTA.

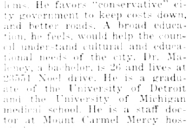

Jenkins

MAIER, a 30-year resident of the township, served on the present and a previous charter commission. He is president of the Southfield Rotary club and a director of Cambridge Village association. Maier and his wife live at 27500 Shogklay drive. He favors city government for efficiency, protection of boundaries and trees, the modest tax rate provided by a city charter. Maier works for Associated Discount, an auto financing firm.

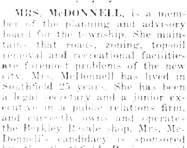

Maier

DR. SILVIA ARMAN'S platform is practical, humanitarian government. He says the "needs of the people must be recognized and implemented in a practical way." Dr. Arman is 32, and lives at 2350 W. 10 Mile. He is the founder of the Van Dyke Medical center and hospital. He has served on medical advisory boards of the city of Detroit and is a member of the Michigan medical society and several medical organizations.

Dr. Arman

TOUCHTON says he wants Southfield to remain a township but to have a mayor. He is 45 and lives at 1902 N. 24th drive. A heating and air conditioning contractor, he has never before run for office.

Touchton

WUEFEL is chairman of the Southfield township zoning board and board of appeal, and is president of the township board. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and lives at 25120 Circle drive.

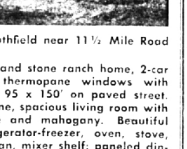

Wuefel

Three candidates seek the office of township judge. Dale C. Campbell, Claude A. Patalidis and Clarence A. Reed, Jr.

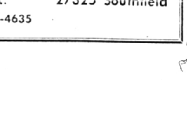

Campbell

CAMPBELL, 45, is a partner in the law firm of Hewer and Campbell. He has also been with the bureau of internal revenue. Campbell is a trustee of Covenant Baptist church, and a director of Rose and Woods Civic association. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit law school. Campbell, his wife and daughter live at 1808 N. 24th.

Patalidis

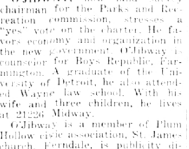

PATALIDIS has a private legal practice in addition to being with the patent department of the Automobile Manufacturers association. He has also been with the Park, Francis Electrical Co., the French ministry of prisoners of war and displaced persons, and tool and die shops in Detroit. Born in France, Patalidis was educated in France and received a law degree from Wayne. With his wife, Monique, and two children, he lives at 24401 Farmbrook.

Reed

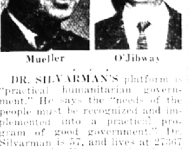

CLARKSON has a law degree from the Detroit college of law and has practiced for six years. He is counsel of the Michigan Bar association, a member of the Southfield county club, and a member of the Michigan Bar association. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and lives at 2350 W. 10 Mile. He is the founder of the Van Dyke Medical center and hospital. He has served on medical advisory boards of the city of Detroit and is a member of the Michigan medical society and several medical organizations.

REID lives in the township of Southfield. An attorney, he is married and has two children. He has a bachelor's degree in business administration and a law degree. Running for associate judge are S. James Clarkson and John H. O'Brien.

Reid

CLARKSON has a law degree from the Detroit college of law and has practiced for six years. He is counsel of the Michigan Bar association, a member of the Southfield county club, and a member of the Michigan Bar association. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and lives at 2350 W. 10 Mile. He is the founder of the Van Dyke Medical center and hospital. He has served on medical advisory boards of the city of Detroit and is a member of the Michigan medical society and several medical organizations.

Clarkson

MISS CLARA LANE, Southfield township treasurer since 1945, is the only candidate for city treasurer. She has also served as assistant treasurer, cashier and bookkeeper, and secretary. Lane is a graduate of the University of Michigan and lives at 2350 W. 10 Mile. She is the founder of the Van Dyke Medical center and hospital. She has served on medical advisory boards of the city of Detroit and is a member of the Michigan medical society and several medical organizations.

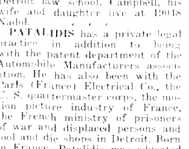

Lane

BECKER attended the Detroit Institute of Technology where he served as treasurer until 1940. He is a veteran counselor, post office officer for the VFW and a public relations counselor for sports. He lives at 22775 Kildare.

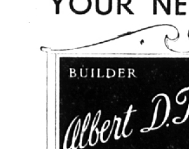

Becker

FLANNERY, 37, has twice been elected charter commissioner and served on the present one. He says his experience in drafting the two charters as well as his three years of administrative study has given him invaluable understanding of the functioning of city government. Flannery has about 10 years experience in business management. He has five children.

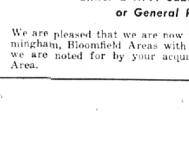

Flannery

MRS. THOMAS has been a clerk for three years in the office of Mr. James Adams, township clerk. She has served as deputy clerk, registration clerk and helped with the business two charter elections. Mrs. Thomas has a business education and lives at 22175 Meadowview drive.

Mrs. Thomas

Model on ADAMS ROAD Between Long Lake & Wattle's

South Berkshires Social Briefs

Harriet and John Secret are back at their Leenore drive home after a two-week vacation in Florida and Nassau. The couple flew to Clearwater, Fla. for rest and relaxation before flying to Fort Montague, Nassau. Before returning home the couple spent the remainder of their vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Recent visitors at the Secret's were John's mother, Mrs. Paul Secret of Oberlin, Ohio, and his sister, Martha Secret. Also Harriet's mother, Mrs. Sidney Porter of East Liverpool, Ohio.

A new member of the Greenwood board of directors, Mrs. William C. Tompkins of Midway drive, was elected Tuesday evening. Co-hostess was Mrs. John Donovan.

The James Walkers have just returned from three weeks at Valeria Beach, Fla. They visited Cypress gardens and Marine lands. Coming home they stopped off at Lexington, Ky., where they toured several horse farms.

Mrs. Russell Hershberger and children, Janet, Dick and Cathy, of Stelmur drive spent Easter week vacation with friends and relatives in Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind.

Washington, D. C. attracted the Levin Merrills of Middlebury lane during vacation. Lane, 14, and Marshall, 7, were interested in seeing the history they are studying about.

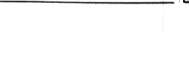

The Leon A. Jacobsons accompanied by daughters, Linda and Donna, drove to Washington, D. C. to show the girls the historical sights.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Berkshire drive just returned from F. O. Lawrence Named President

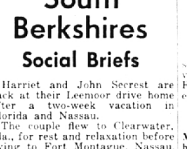

BERKSHIRES—The Bloomfield Berkshire Improvement association will meet at Wing Lake school April 30 at 8 p.m. for the annual spring meeting. City problems and the coming dinner dance are on the agenda.

Elected officers are F. O. Lawrence, president; Robert Bouson, vice-president; Charles A. Dale, treasurer and Mrs. Henry D. Croteau, secretary.

Robert Waks of Old Mill road returned from a three-week vacation at Pompano Beach, Fla. This was their first experience at salt water swimming and water skiing.

Westchester Social Briefs

Harriet and John Secret are back at their Leenore drive home after a two-week vacation in Florida and Nassau. The couple flew to Clearwater, Fla. for rest and relaxation before flying to Fort Montague, Nassau. Before returning home the couple spent the remainder of their vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Recent visitors at the Secret's were John's mother, Mrs. Paul Secret of Oberlin, Ohio, and his sister, Martha Secret. Also Harriet's mother, Mrs. Sidney Porter of East Liverpool, Ohio.

A new member of the Greenwood board of directors, Mrs. William C. Tompkins of Midway drive, was elected Tuesday evening. Co-hostess was Mrs. John Donovan.

The James Walkers have just returned from three weeks at Valeria Beach, Fla. They visited Cypress gardens and Marine lands. Coming home they stopped off at Lexington, Ky., where they toured several horse farms.

Mrs. Russell Hershberger and children, Janet, Dick and Cathy, of Stelmur drive spent Easter week vacation with friends and relatives in Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind.

Washington, D. C. attracted the Levin Merrills of Middlebury lane during vacation. Lane, 14, and Marshall, 7, were interested in seeing the history they are studying about.

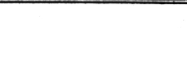

The Leon A. Jacobsons accompanied by daughters, Linda and Donna, drove to Washington, D. C. to show the girls the historical sights.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Berkshire drive just returned from F. O. Lawrence Named President

BERKSHIRES—The Bloomfield Berkshire Improvement association will meet at Wing Lake school April 30 at 8 p.m. for the annual spring meeting. City problems and the coming dinner dance are on the agenda.

Elected officers are F. O. Lawrence, president; Robert Bouson, vice-president; Charles A. Dale, treasurer and Mrs. Henry D. Croteau, secretary.

Robert Waks of Old Mill road returned from a three-week vacation at Pompano Beach, Fla. This was their first experience at salt water swimming and water skiing.

Berkshires Social Briefs

Harriet and John Secret are back at their Leenore drive home after a two-week vacation in Florida and Nassau. The couple flew to Clearwater, Fla. for rest and relaxation before flying to Fort Montague, Nassau. Before returning home the couple spent the remainder of their vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Recent visitors at the Secret's were John's mother, Mrs. Paul Secret of Oberlin, Ohio, and his sister, Martha Secret. Also Harriet's mother, Mrs. Sidney Porter of East Liverpool, Ohio.

A new member of the Greenwood board of directors, Mrs. William C. Tompkins of Midway drive, was elected Tuesday evening. Co-hostess was Mrs. John Donovan.

The James Walkers have just returned from three weeks at Valeria Beach, Fla. They visited Cypress gardens and Marine lands. Coming home they stopped off at Lexington, Ky., where they toured several horse farms.

Mrs. Russell Hershberger and children, Janet, Dick and Cathy, of Stelmur drive spent Easter week vacation with friends and relatives in Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind.

Washington, D. C. attracted the Levin Merrills of Middlebury lane during vacation. Lane, 14, and Marshall, 7, were interested in seeing the history they are studying about.

The Leon A. Jacobsons accompanied by daughters, Linda and Donna, drove to Washington, D. C. to show the girls the historical sights.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Berkshire drive just returned from F. O. Lawrence Named President

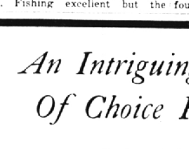

BERKSHIRES—The Bloomfield Berkshire Improvement association will meet at Wing Lake school April 30 at 8 p.m. for the annual spring meeting. City problems and the coming dinner dance are on the agenda.

Elected officers are F. O. Lawrence, president; Robert Bouson, vice-president; Charles A. Dale, treasurer and Mrs. Henry D. Croteau, secretary.

Robert Waks of Old Mill road returned from a three-week vacation at Pompano Beach, Fla. This was their first experience at salt water swimming and water skiing.

Westchester Social Briefs

Harriet and John Secret are back at their Leenore drive home after a two-week vacation in Florida and Nassau. The couple flew to Clearwater, Fla. for rest and relaxation before flying to Fort Montague, Nassau. Before returning home the couple spent the remainder of their vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Recent visitors at the Secret's were John's mother, Mrs. Paul Secret of Oberlin, Ohio, and his sister, Martha Secret. Also Harriet's mother, Mrs. Sidney Porter of East Liverpool, Ohio.

A new member of the Greenwood board of directors, Mrs. William C. Tompkins of Midway drive, was elected Tuesday evening. Co-hostess was Mrs. John Donovan.

The James Walkers have just returned from three weeks at Valeria Beach, Fla. They visited Cypress gardens and Marine lands. Coming home they stopped off at Lexington, Ky., where they toured several horse farms.

Mrs. Russell Hershberger and children, Janet, Dick and Cathy, of Stelmur drive spent Easter week vacation with friends and relatives in Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind.

Washington, D. C. attracted the Levin Merrills of Middlebury lane during vacation. Lane, 14, and Marshall, 7, were interested in seeing the history they are studying about.

The Leon A. Jacobsons accompanied by daughters, Linda and Donna, drove to Washington, D. C. to show the girls the historical sights.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Berkshire drive just returned from F. O. Lawrence Named President

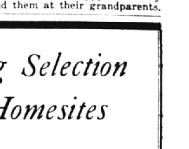

BERKSHIRES—The Bloomfield Berkshire Improvement association will meet at Wing Lake school April 30 at 8 p.m. for the annual spring meeting. City problems and the coming dinner dance are on the agenda.

Elected officers are F. O. Lawrence, president; Robert Bouson, vice-president; Charles A. Dale, treasurer and Mrs. Henry D. Croteau, secretary.

Robert Waks of Old Mill road returned from a three-week vacation at Pompano Beach, Fla. This was their first experience at salt water swimming and water skiing.

Westchester Social Briefs

Harriet and John Secret are back at their Leenore drive home after a two-week vacation in Florida and Nassau. The couple flew to Clearwater, Fla. for rest and relaxation before flying to Fort Montague, Nassau. Before returning home the couple spent the remainder of their vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Recent visitors at the Secret's were John's mother, Mrs. Paul Secret of Oberlin, Ohio, and his sister, Martha Secret. Also Harriet's mother, Mrs. Sidney Porter of East Liverpool, Ohio.

A new member of the Greenwood board of directors, Mrs. William C. Tompkins of Midway drive, was elected Tuesday evening. Co-hostess was Mrs. John Donovan.

The James Walkers have just returned from three weeks at Valeria Beach, Fla. They visited Cypress gardens and Marine lands. Coming home they stopped off at Lexington, Ky., where they toured several horse farms.

Mrs. Russell Hershberger and children, Janet, Dick and Cathy, of Stelmur drive spent Easter week vacation with friends and relatives in Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind.

Washington, D. C. attracted the Levin Merrills of Middlebury lane during vacation. Lane, 14, and Marshall, 7, were interested in seeing the history they are studying about.

The Leon A. Jacobsons accompanied by daughters, Linda and Donna, drove to Washington, D. C. to show the girls the historical sights.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Berkshire drive just returned from F. O. Lawrence Named President

BERKSHIRES—The Bloomfield Berkshire Improvement association will meet at Wing Lake school April 30 at 8 p.m. for the annual spring meeting. City problems and the coming dinner dance are on the agenda.

Elected officers are F. O. Lawrence, president; Robert Bouson, vice-president; Charles A. Dale, treasurer and Mrs. Henry D. Croteau, secretary.

Robert Waks of Old Mill road returned from a three-week vacation at Pompano Beach, Fla. This was their first experience at salt water swimming and water skiing.

An Intriguing Selection of Choice Homesites

- A pleasant view across The winding Clinton River Valley. High and rolling terrain. A perfect setting for a split level home. Only a mile To the new Rochester High School.
- Pleasantly located in a wooded section On winding Eastmoor Drive In the beautiful rolling Braes of Bloomfield This large tract provides ample frontage For a spreading ranch home. 300 feet of depth.
- In ultra select company in exclusive Lone Pine Road Estates. This splendid homesite Occupies a wide corner on Timberlake Dr. Mature shade trees are strategically located For building. It's a really fine address.
- On curving Strathmore Drive In the gently rolling hills, a large Homesite wonderfully adapted to modern Ranch design. It has 150 feet of frontage And almost 700 feet deep. An opportunity.
- In a choice subdivision south of Birmingham, this large building homesite Affords a wide frontage for a spreading Ranch home, and features a generous Sprinkling of beautiful hardwood shade trees.

WALSH JAMES & WASEY CO.

Realtors since 1918
40 years of continuous service in Birmingham
431 S. Woodward Ave. Midwest 4-6500
Birmingham Detroit, JO 4-6033

If you want the very finest in Country Living...

SEE...Robertson Bros.' 1958 Subdivision Today!

You may expect the finest, and you get it in one of our larger 3, 4, or 5 bedroom homes in Hickory Heights subdivision. Each home is individualized for you by our craftsmen, many of whom have been with Robertson Bros. for more than 20 years.

You'll find not only quality but country living with city conveniences such as paved roads, sanitary sewers and township water... located in scenic Bloomfield township. Robertson Bros. has sold over 700 homes in the Birmingham area. "Quality of product is essential to continuing success"... so when you buy from Robertson Bros., you buy with confidence!

Open every day from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

ROBERTSON BROS.

4330 N. WOODWARD, R. O. "Personalized Homes" LI 9-3500

LATHRUP VILLAGE

18375 Saratoga—West of Southfield near 11 1/2 Mile Road
Brand new 8-room buff brick and stone ranch home, 2-car attached garage. Anderson thermopane windows with screens, 2-foot overhang. Lot 95 x 150' on paved street. Central hall 5' wide in flagstone, spacious living room with fireplace of imported marble and mahogany. Beautiful kitchen has built-in refrigerator-freezer, oven, stove, dishwasher, disposal, lazy susan, mixer shelf, paneled dining space by window. Adjoining laundry room; mahogany paneled family room. Beautiful formal dining room; 3 large bedrooms. Main bath cocoa tile and sunken fixtures, vanity with mirror. Private bath with stall shower, vanity and mirror. Huge recreation room paneled, with fireplace and bar; large game room, fruit cellar, cedar closet, full bath. Combination intercom throughout house and basement. PRICE $48,000. IMMEDIATE POSSESSION.

Built by Guy Antonelli, Inc. 27325 Southfield Elgin 6-4635

WHEN YOU SEE THIS SIGN AT YOUR NEIGHBORS

YOU KNOW SOMETHING NICE IS BEING DONE

A NEW ROOM... A NEW HOME
Either a Hi-Fi Cabinet, Bookshelves or General Remodeling

We are pleased that we are now in a position to service the Birmingham, Bloomfield Areas with the same quality workmanship we are noted for by your acquaintances in the Grosse Pointe Area.