BUSINESS BRIEFS

Risk Firm's New Agent

Edward W. Rehms, Jr., 18250 Devonshire, Westwood, has been appointed Minneapolis general agent of Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

A native of Minneapolis, Rehms entered the farm and industrial equipment sales field in 1946 after graduation from the University of Michigan.

IN 1954 HE became associated with Mutual Benefit Life in Detroit, and during the next four years qualified for many company honors on the basis of his sales and service to policyholders. He also had supervisory responsibilities in the Detroit agency.

Turns Salesman

William H. McGaughey (right), American Motors Corp. vice-president and Bloomfield Hills resident, decided to pitch in during the Detroit area's You Auto Buy Now campaign, even though he had never sold a car. He made three calls and ended up selling one car and obtaining two "hot" prospects. Here he sells a car to John Hunting (left), English instructor at Cranbrook school. Center is Earl Moore, salesman for Birmingham Rambler.
