Stephen Alums Meet for Final Regular Meeting

Guest night with all its festivity marked the final regular meeting of the year Wednesday evening for the Stephens college alumnae club of Birmingham. Mrs. A. D. Gravenhorst, retiring club president, presided at the meeting which was at the home of Mrs. G. C. Waggoner, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills.

Forty members and their guests were present to enjoy a program on "Flower Growing Outdoors," which was presented by Mrs. R. W. Hansen and Mr. H. G. of the Northland Landscaping Company. Co-hostesses were Mrs. J. T. Downey, Jr., Mrs. R. W. Hansen and Mrs. R. J. Stuart.

HIGHLIGHT of the evening was the installation of recently elected officers, who will assume office in September. Mrs. J. T. Downey, Jr., president of the national vice-president of the Stephens college alumnae association, presided at the installation.

Foreign Visitors' Hostesses Guests

Birmingham women who have entertained visitors from Spain and Japan during the last month were guests April 16 at an American Overseas Association luncheon in the home of Mrs. James Faxon, 1132 Northlawn.

The group made plans to host eight Philippine businessmen who are slated to arrive here tomorrow. The foreigners hope to use American methods of management, production and engineering and to adapt them to industrial expansion of the Philippine economy.

Attending were 12 members of the AOA who served in the American Red Cross overseas, assisted by Mrs. G. Gravenhorst.

Those who presided the two symposia of installation are Mrs. J. L. Emmons, president; Mrs. J. W. Fort, first vice president; Mrs. R. W. Hansen, second vice president; Mrs. E. C. Hase, secretary; Mrs. M. R. Knapp, Jr., treasurer; and Mrs. H. W. Hastings, public relations officer.

ADDITIONAL activities coming up before the close of the club year are a dinner-dance and a Stephens Orientation Tea. On May 17, club members, their husbands and guests will enjoy dinner and dancing at Hillcrest country club in Mount Pleasant. Tickets are being handled by Mrs. H. W. Hastings, social chairman.

Mary Longdyke Wed To T. H. Robinson III

Mary Mina Longdyke and Thomas Henry Robinson III, exchanged April marriage vows at the First Methodist church, Birmingham. The Rev. Allen E. Wittrup performed the double-ring candlelight ceremony, attended by 125 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Longdyke of S. Miller way, Bloomfield township. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Robinson, Commerce Lake.

Mary wore a floor length gown of all lace over tulle with long sleeves.

The groom is with the U. S. Navy and stationed at Green Cove Springs, Fla. His best man was Bruce D. Robinson of Commerce Lake.

Harold F. Longdyke of Birmingham was head usher. Other ushers were Charles D. Robinson, Robert Rockwell and Albert Trabucco.

THE BRIDES mother was attired in lime green lace over tulle with hat of matching material and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a blue silk gown with full skirt and a red roses corsage.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Charles Walton of Syracuse, N. Y. and Cleveland, Ohio, attended the ceremony.

A reception at the church was followed by a buffet supper at the bride's home.

For a two-weeks' wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the bride chose a grey galoreline suit with matching accessories.
