Sponsors Fashion Show

The Charing Cross Estates fashion show, at Deane's, 1100 1/2th Avenue, will feature the latest fashions from the Birmingham Fashion Show.

Bridge followed the show at 4:45 Charing Cross Estates, which is sponsoring the show, will be attending. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robert Crispell, Mrs. Ned Chamberlain and Mrs. Gene Thomsen.

Mrs. A. Robert Jordan and Mrs. Lloyd Hanson, both of 1100 1/2th Avenue, were committee chairman. Donna Schwab and Jeanne Smith, both of Oakhill drive, Thorwood, were among the 20 teenagers of the Church Youth group of Birmingham, Christian church who spent Easter week in Chicago.

Accompanying the group on the annual spring trip were the Rev. Robert Dwyer, and Mrs. Gloria Shaffer, church secretary.

Their first two days in Chicago were "work days" at the West side Christian parish helping clean up the slums. The rest of their stay was spent sight-seeing.

Four were made to dine Adams Hall house, Institute of Science and Industry and the Adler planetarium. "My Fair Lady" was also on the entertainment list as was George Diamond and other dance spots.

"Development of reading technique" was the topic. Edwin K. Dell, school principal, spoke on at the Harlan PTA April 16, at the school's multipurpose room. Alvin Crandall's talk, "The group was brought to the parents."

Richard Goodman, fourth and fifth grade combination class teacher, arranged two groups of children on the stage and acting on word discussions, then singing and reading all part of a final play in the classroom. Parents found this "birds eye view" most interesting.

With the March 1955 coming May 2, all parents were urged to buy their dinner ticket before April 28. The dinner will be served by a catering service and will be buffet style.

A presentation of the boy scout charter of BSA was presented by Paul Mettler, neighborhood secretary, commissioning of Robert Schwab, PTA president, during the business meeting.

Among the Hickory Heights subdivision families returning from spring trips were the Fred Hickory of Orchard Hill drive and the Fred Cornells of Hickory Heights drive.

The Trickies spent three weeks hiking in the sun with their sons, Fred, Jr., Dick and Dennis, at North Redington beach, Fla. They took side trips to Kings-
