WNFGA to Meet April 28

WESTCHESTER — The Westchester branch of the WNFGA will meet April 28 at the home of Mrs. Norman Duke, 2640 Middlebury, at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Frank Wilhelm and Mrs. John Spomer assisting. A floral designer will show how to use few flowers in unusual containers and how important it is to use the correct type of greens with different flowers.

Mrs. Edgar Breedlove of Wadsworth lane will report on the meeting with garden clubs from Oakland county in which plans for future combined meetings were formulated.

The flowering crab tree sale committee are taking orders for the pink hops and white daisies. To purchase one before the May 10 delivery contact Mrs. Herbert Graebner and Mrs. Robert Batchelor.

Lathrup Finishes Elm Tree Spraying

LATHRUP — The spraying job on the city elm trees was finished on April 5, Leonard Watlow, city administrator reported Monday.

In response to a letter from the tree committee, residents have contributed $1,000 to cover the cost of spraying the trees. The final figure is expected to reach $2,000. Watchowski said that the city had been picking up tree trimmings for about two weeks. Trimmings are not available to continue this work. Residents will be notified that this service has been discontinued.

Council Gets Bonds

WESTWOOD — The village council Monday voted to bond its treasurer, Donald McGold, for $25,000. Bonds of $1,000 each will be issued for Village President Marvin Cline, Clerk Alvin Spencer and Public Safety Director Robert Murphy.

Hostess for Group Is Mrs. H. Koseck

EAST SOUTHWEST — Mrs. H. Koseck, 2550 Alabaster, was hostess for the Tuesday meeting of "Anything Goes" extension group. "Training and Care of Eggs" was the lesson given by Mrs. Donald Radtke, second lesson "Short Cuts in Home Sewing".
