LATHRUP The home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen P. Christian, 18556 Lathrup, was entered through a back window Sunday between 8 and 11 p.m. When they returned home Sunday morning the Christians found their car and desk drawers emptied of cash and about $120 in cash and jewelry.

Investigating officers were inclined to believe that two persons entered the entry. While one of the burglars ransacked the home, the other acted as lookout.

On March 18 entry was made into the home of H. E. Thompson, 18556 Lathrup drive. Although nothing of value was taken, the house was completely ransacked in a search for cash.
