Ford Tractor Appoints Two from Birmingham

Two new appointments in the sales operations of Ford Motor Company's tractor and implement division at Birmingham have been announced.

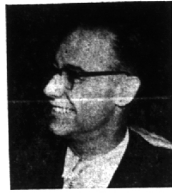

R. F. Weth is appointed manager, Detroit regional sales office. R. J. Brown is appointed manager, sales analysis and distribution department, which had been Weth's position.

Weth joined Ford Motor Co. in August, 1958, and was assistant manager of the marketing service department until 1956 when he was placed in charge of the sales analysis and distribution department. He previously was with Dearborn Motors Corp., which he joined in May 1947 after a year's association with Nash-Kelvinator Corp. He had previously served for three years in the war department's general staff tabulating unit, Washington.

A NATIVE of Kenosha, Wis., he attended the University of Wisconsin and George Washington university, Washington. Weth lives at 1004 Wimbledon, Birmingham.

BROWN HAS BEEN supervisor of the sales analysis section. He joined Ford tractor division in August, 1953. Previously he had been a member of the controller's staff of Dearborn Motors Corp.

A graduate of the University of Akron and of Harvard business school, Birmingham, Weth lives at 1321 York-shire, Birmingham.

Long Service

Julian M. Gilroy, 705 Mohegan, Birmingham, assistant general truck sales manager at GMC truck and coach division, Pontiac, completed 25 years service with General Motors last month and was presented a gold wrist watch.
