SOCIETY

Mayor's Daughter Weds Edward J. Martin, Jr.

Gowned in silk organza, Patricia Ruth Cogger became the bride of Edward W. Martin, Jr., Saturday evening at Community Congregational church. The Rev. John Rose performed the candlelight ceremony.

Parents of the newweds are Mayor and Mrs. Richard Cogger of Sunset drive, Lathrup Village, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Martin of Lathrup road, Lathrup Village.

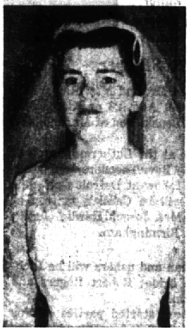

THE BRIDE'S gown was princess style imported chantilly rose-point lace bodice with scoop neckline and long sleeves. A seed pearl headpiece secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis. The bride wore pearls, which her mother wore on her wedding day.

CAROLYN COGGER was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Carol Caddell and Sandy Martin. They wore aqua crystalline dresses with scoop necklines and carried white carnations. Bob Martin stood as best man for his brother. Ushers were Kent Mackay, Richard Cogger, Jr., Tom Mason and Don Elliott.

MOTHER of the bride chose a rose silk chiffon sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Martin selected a beige lace sheath with matching accessories. The newweds are honeymooning up north. The new Mrs. Martin changed to a brown sheath with white accessories for traveling.

Area 4 Chairman

Mrs. Ernest Scherer is UP chairman of area 4 in Bloomfield Hills. District chairmen are Mrs. Lynn Avery, Mrs. Morris Allen, Mrs. A. J. Sively, Mrs. Victor Corborton and Mrs. Phil Clawson.

MRS. EDWARD MARTIN, JR.

Presbyterian Church Scene of Ceremony

First Presbyterian church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Patricia Hupp Before and John Henry Fleming. The Rev. Robert Graham performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moss of Linden road, Birmingham, and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Fleming of East Surrey, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE wore a gown fashioned of mousseline de soie featuring a rounded neckline edged in Swiss embroidery with seed pearls, fitted bodice, dome shaped skirt with appliques of Swiss embroidery and pearls and Renaissance back falling into chapel train.

A Mary Queen of Scots cap secured her ivory silk illusion veil. A bouquet of white cabbage rose surrounded by a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and dracena leaves completed the bridal picture.

MILICENT FLEMING was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Margaret Morrison, Betty Williams, Judy Stringfellow and junior bridesmaid was Barbara Hupp.

Attendants were gowned in white chiffon with sabrina necklines, fitted bodices, bouffant skirts with sashes of pink satin. They carried pink tea roses, pink daisies and gypsophylla on white satin and net parasols.

DOUGLAS SHAPTER stood as best man and seating the guests were John Beauchamp, Gerald McColl, Robert McDonald and junior usher Tom Hupp.

Newlyweds Honeymoon In Colorado

JOAN Shippee Eggleston became the bride of Richard J. Wagner Saturday in an afternoon ceremony in the Church of the Good Shepherd in Gladstone, Mo.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mett Shippee of Kansas City. Mr. Dick is the son of Mrs. E. J. Mason of Overhill road and Richard Wagner of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S dress was of blue lace and the veil on her tiny blue hat was trimmed with seed pearls. She carried an orchid on a white prayerbook.

Her only attendant was her sister, Jane Shippee, dressed in beige lace and carrying a colonial bouquet of yellow roses. Hampton Wagner came from Hartford, Conn. to be his brother's best man.

THE MOTHER of the bride wore beige silk shantung and Mrs. Mason chose an embroidered beige linen sheath.

After a honeymoon in Estes Park and Royal Gorge, Colo., the newweds will make their home in Gladstone, Mo., a suburb of Kansas City.

"casual" color effects Random Weave by magee

New—yet already well known to homemakers for its high surface interest. It is an all-wool high-low loop pile, cleverly woven to create a pattern of random ridges. The effect is smartly casual—perfect for informal grouping of modern or traditional furniture. Any one of the solid colors or tweedy color combination carries out the casual appearance.
