More Than 100 Persons

Attend Thornwood Picnic

The first annual Thornwood subdivision picnic held recently was a "howling success"! More than 100 persons joined in the fun.

A cleverly designed cartoon brochure announcing the event was sent to all the homeowners. There were games and prizes for the young and the young at heart. Lee Butler was the musician, while the grill chefs were Bob Peterson, Don Reid and Jim Everett.

On the many committees helping to make the event a memorable one were the Clifford Meyers, the Bob Petersons, Fred Hatch, Bob Schwab, Ralph Richardson, Carl Schorn, Mrs. Donald Smith and Mrs. Roland Starr.

Bubbling over with enthusiasm after two weeks of camp life are Barbara Charters of Brethel drive, Linda Carnegie of Heding road, Karen Trimmer of Bloomcrest and Debbie DeWitt of Tathury lane. They spent two weeks at Camp Narrin at Ortonville where they went on overnight camp-outs, learned to cook out, canoe, swim and swimming lessons and earned their Red Cross swimming certificates.

Debbie Clark, daughter of the Robert Clark of Grentree road, is presently spending two weeks at Camp Narrin.

The David Mitchells of Butternut Hill drive had their daughter, Janet, and a friend, Sandy Clum, of Traverse City, visiting for a week recently. The girls are nursing students at the University of Michigan and are affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority.

During their stay they toured the Cranbrook grounds and Birmingham, and then spent two days at the family cottage at Elizabeth lake.

Janet is planning another trip home before the fall semester begins.

St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Women's auxiliary, is holding its first fund raising campaign at the Newland Hospitality House, 214 2nd. It will be a bridge-luncheon from 12 noon to 4 p.m. A party-styling show by Jacobson's or madam's fall fashions will be of interest to those attending. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Fred Trickey of Orchard Hill drive or Mrs. Don Mills of Eastover drive.

The committee members met to complete their final plans at the 5000 Blvd. home of Mrs. John Eldon, Jr., last week.

A luncheon-show was hosted July 31 at the Pine Lake Country club by Mrs. Frank Gaunt of Westchester, honoring bride-elect Janet Smith of Beverly Hills. Assisting Mrs. Gaunt were Mrs. Robert Rumsey and Mrs. Ernest Dahm of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Ruth Richards of Birmingham.

Miss Smith and Hubert Bartz of Southfield will wed Aug. 30. Among the 12 guests at the shower were Mrs. Gerry Bartz of Southfield and Mrs. Thomas Darrell of Lake Orion, mother and sister of the prospective groom, and Mrs. Robert Bailey of Whittier, Calif., formerly of Huntington Woods.

The Marc Hagermans of Butternut Hill drive entertained at bridge last Saturday. The hosts were the Tom Richings, the Clyde Morgans and the Robert Barnes, all of the Pine Hill subdivision.

The George Jones of Dowling road entertained recently at a barbecue on their patio. After dinner some of the guests played horse-shoes while others sang.

Enjoying the evening were the Roger Blackwoods of Charwood drive, the David DeWitts of Thebury lane, the Roland Diemers of North Adams road, the Robert Boyers of Fox Run, the Vincent Gilloes of Westwood, others were the Robert Tripps and daughter, Roberts, of Grosse Pointe Woods, Sally Lawler and James Roche of Bloomfield Hills.

A "steak roast" was hosted by the Robert Boyers of Fox Run drive an evening last week. Their guests included the John Costellos of Squirrel road, the Louis Horvaths of Hickory Heights drive and the George Jones of Dowling road.

Houseguests at the Oakhill drive home of the Carl Schorns are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hale and children, and Christopher and Julian, of Los Angeles, Calif., relatives of Mrs. Schorn's.

During their stay the Schorns are planning to take their guests to their summer home near Harrisville, for a few days.

Other recent guests for five days at the Schorn home were Mrs. David and four-year-old Janisse and Fay Wilborski, from Grosse Pointe. A baby shower, luncheon and bridge was held at Red Run Coughtry club, honoring Mrs. Douglas Clark of Tathury lane recently. Co-hosting the afternoon was Mrs. Hugh Carney of Sussex road and Mrs. Norman Barnes of Lenox road.

Shades of pink and purple were carried out in the flower arrangement centering the luncheon table. Guests from Charwood were Mr. Joseph Paulic, Mrs. Randall Mulvaney, Mrs. David DeWitt, Mrs. Donald Hokin, Mrs. Sherrill Simpson. Others from the North Adams area were Mrs. Myron Boudoway, Mrs. Robert Clark, Mrs. John Cowan, Mrs. Rod Ackerman, Mrs. Jack Strossen-Reuter, Mrs. John L. Hole.

Recent houseguests at the Bolingbrook drive home of the William Reichards were Mr. and Mrs. James Hair of Cleveland, Mrs. Reichards' parents. Presently visiting here is Reichard's mother, Mrs. Clarence Reichard also of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan Traveling to Florida

A bow of peau de soie held in place Suzanne Jarvis' shoulder length veil of silk illusion for her husband Buchanan Saturday afternoon. They repeated their vows at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of 70 guests.

The Rev. Lester Dobyns performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Jarvis of Fox Lake road, Birmingham, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buchanan of Detroit.

THE BRIDE walked down the aisle in a princess style ballerina length gown featuring a lace bodice, round neckline and short sleeves. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid and ivy attached.

Jean P. Jarvis was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Jarvis and Ruth Buchanan. They wore light blue silk organza over taffeta with matching headbands.

ROSS S. GREEN was best man and seating the guests were Ray and Ross Buchanan, brothers of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jarvis chose a pale blue silk sheath with lace jacket and pinned lilies on her purse. Mother of the groom selected a green lace sheath over satin and a white rose corsage.

A RECEPTION followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan are on their way to Florida and the bride party moon. The new Mrs. Buchanan chose a blue silk sheath with a white orchid for traveling.

Ann Finkenauer Feted at Parties

Ann Finkenauer and Phil Pettit will be united in marriage August 30 in the First Presbyterian church.

Many showers and parties have been given in honor of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Thurber Woolson and Mrs. Edward Henning gave a kitchen shower at the home of the mooning in Royal Oak. "Dinner and the Clock" shower was given July 26 at the home of Mrs. Charles Hantson of N. Williamsburg road.

MRS. JOHN STROSSEN-REUTER entertained at a miscellaneous shower and bridge luncheon July 31 at her home in Bloomfield Hills. Ann was feted Tuesday at a kitchen
